HUSBAND	Lebbeus PORTER-71	Yr of Birth 1742
WIFE	Ruth LYMAN-72	Yr of Birth 1765

HUSBAND - Lebbeus PORTER-71

Sources: ALPK holographic genealogy charts & narrative; Porter family bible in possession of Agnes Porter, Janesville, Wis.(through Donald Porter Avery); Civil War records; War of 1812 records; IGI (Mormon) micro files & data

Listed in 1800 Southampton, Suffolk Co, N.Y. Census as Labeus Porter, 104A7 Suff; also in 1810 Census, Shelter Island, Suffolk Co., NY.

Listed in SHELTER ISLAND AND ITS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, (auth. Jacob E. Malman, pastor Presbyterian Church, copyright 1899, reprinted 1985, pg 96), Copy of The First Pew List, An Account of the Sale of the Pews in the Meeting House on Shelter Island, June 20, 1817, for One Year, as Libbeus Porter, original Pew Holder Pew # 34 ,purchase price $2.85, (Also documented by town historian--see file for photocopy).

The meeting house log (pg. 50--date unfortunately not recorded. See file for photocopy of proceedings) holds a further reference to him as one of several witnesses called in a civil matter (wife beating & profanity) brought before the church elders. This document gived further proof that he was living there at that time.

His granddaughter, Antoinette Louise Porter King, daughter of his son Selah Smith Porter,wrote in her "Record of the Porter Family" (a holographic genealogy she wrote between 1892 & 1896) the following statement about him: hand-written genealogy, and her death in 1896), is as follows " Lebbeus Porter was born in Colchester, Conn. Oct 14 1742. Was married to Ruth Lyman of Weathersfield, Conn. She was born Jan 1st 1763. Lebbeus Porter died at Hogneck Southampton Long I. Aug 12 1819. Ruth Lyman Porter died in New York City Oct 19 1830. He served through the Revolutionary War--was paid off in continental money. He said when he reached home he did not have enough money to buy a pair of wool cards. Those articles were of great importance in those days. One of his toes was injured by a canon (sic) ball which troubled him to his dying day." The document then spells out (a total of 4 legal size pages) the details of births, deaths & marriages for the next two generations of the descendants of Lebbeus & Ruth. This genealogy has been proven accurate in all but a few minor details (the second name of their son Henry Charles, which she listed as Clinton), so ALPK must be taken seriously as a family historian. Yet to this date we have found very few clues to help document her dates & places related specifically to Lebbeus. [See file for list of records unsuccessfully searched for verification of Revolutionary War service]

Extensive search of cemeteries in the Hogneck, Southampton area to this date has not yielded any clues. Also no documentation as yet of birth place.(Several documents have been lost in fires or by human error) Early Presbyterian church record for Shelter Island--abt 1816--lists him as a witness in a civil case (See file), but we have found no death records in Long Island records for him, or any birth records for his children. The early Hogneck Cemetery does not exist now. [See Research Data File for extensive list of searches made.]

Research of every available vital record has not to date yielded any further clues to him. However, we have uncovered two other men with the same name who are contemporary to our Lebbeus. One, listed as Lebbius Porter, shows up in the 1810 US Census for New York, Onondaga Co., City of Lysander, Roll 34, pg. 104. (This is the same census where our Lebbeus is recorded on Long Island). The other, a Libbeus Porter, is recorded in the 1800 US Census for Mass., Norfolk Co., City of Wrentham, Reel 18, pg. 376.(Copies of both records in file)

RESEARCH QUESTIONS:

1. Clues in his name (LEBBEUS) & names given his children: HORACE; George ANSON; Henry Charles; PHILO Albert; Samuel Lyman; Laura Irene; SELAH Smith; Joel Bartlett. Also, middle name of his namesake grandson, Lebbeus EFFINGHAM Porter, & grandsons OBED SEARS & IRVING BAYANT. Do any of these give clues to English origin of Porters?

2. We've only seen Lebbeus used with Porters. Does that mean anything?

3. Determine significance (if any) of first child, Horace, birth in CT 19 Mar 1788. (Ref: ALPK Holo. Gen.)

4. Develop an appropriate strategy for finding his parents & determining his ancestral line!!!!

Start by researching descendants of John Porter of Windsor, CT, as recorded in JOHN PORTER AND HIS DESCENDANTS, compiled by Arthur Amasa Porter, Portage WI 1917, starting with 2nd generation. To wit:

2nd Gen: Samuel, b. England 1626; m/ Hannah Stanley
Joseph, b. England 1634
James, b. England 1638; m. Sarah Tudor
Nathaniel, b. 29 Feb 1640; m. Anna Groves

Also research Richard Porter of Weymouth,freeman in 1655, m. Deliverance Bryan & his descendants:

2nd Gen John
3rd " Samuel by w. Mary Nash
4th " Samuel by w. Sarah Josselyn
5th " Joseph by w. Elizabeth Burrell
6th " Lebbeus
7th " Joseph, Col., b. 19 Dec 1800

WIFE - Ruth LYMAN-72

Source: Marriage of parents & date of birth IGI & from Glastonbury Vital Records Vol. 1, page 57 (also confirms names & birth dates all siblings)

ALPK Holo. Gen. lists her birthplace as Weathersfield, Ct.--same birth dates but year 1763. Using formula suggested by Suffolk Co. Hist. Soc., data included in her death certificate from NYC determines her birth date as Nov. 4 1763.

HUSBAND Lebbeus PORTER-71 Yr of Birth 1742
WIFE Ruth LYMAN-72 Yr of Birth 1765

See death doc. below. Also Siemiatkoski (pg.26) affirms Enoch Lyman & Dinah Smith as her grandparents·More research necessary to finally det. actual date.

She may have been named·for her great-grandmother, Ruth Holton (RIN# 918)

Doc. Marriage date & location only in ALPK holo. gen.

Lebbeus' death left her with several young children: Laura Irene, 16; Selah, not quite 15; & Joel, 11. Possibly she lived for a few years with family, or an older son: George, Henry & probably Horace were all married by then. More likely is that she is the Mrs. Porter we find in the 1820 US Census, NY, NYC, 4th Ward, call # 29 Jan 1820, pg 156, listed as head of a household which includes the following: 1 free white male b/w 16-26; 1 free white female b/w 16-26, one 45 & over; 3 foreigners not naturalized; 1 manufacturer. Her son Selah & her daughter Laura fit those ages; that leaves the question of where Joel (then age 12) was living, but he may have been living with other family members. Best guess is that this is our Ruth, who is running a boarding house.

Two years later we find her in the NYC Directory in 1822 as "Porter, Widow Ruth, 33 Pump St." (MF 315M-Reel 9,1822/3-1829/30). She is not listed again in the directory,but in the next several years before her death in 1830 her newly-married daughter Laura Irene & several of her sons--Henry, Philo, George and possibly Horace were all living nearby & she may have been living with one of them.

In the 1830 US Census for N.Y., Kings Co., Brooklyn, we find the Samuel L. Porter household (See RIN #77) includes a free white female between the age of 60-70,, which is most likely Ruth, living with her son.

Her address in the death register, 11 Mott St., is near to all the other known family addresses at that time. Joel is listed in the NYC Dir. at 196 Mott St. in 1833-35; Selah's second child, William Henry, was born on Mott St. in 1833. Finally, she was living on Mott St., undoubtedly with one of them, at her death. Needs further research.

Doc Death: Manhattan Death Register, NYC Public Library MF ZI-201 Reel 3 1824-1832. " October 24,1830 Residence: 11 Mott St Age: 66 yr, 10 mo, 14 days Born: Weathersfield, Con Cause: Consumption Burial: Methodist Society Cem. Sexton: Peter Brown" (See xerox copy in file). [Since both IGI & ALPK 19 Oct. birthdates agree, and we know the Sexton had a week within which to record deaths (Bailey Guide to Gen. Sources For NYC 1783-1898) for now the later date on this certificate is assumed to be her burial date, not her death date. Needs further research]

NOTE: Her place of birth is listed as Weathersfield, just as in ALPK holo. gen.. Somehow Ruth &/or her family thought she was born there, even though records clearly place her birth in Glastonbury. The border between the two towns may at some point give us a clue.

CHILD 3 - Henry Charles PORTER-75

Doc: ALPK Holo. Gen.1892 Family Group Sheet DPA, sent RKF 3-22-1989; HISTORY OF WALWORTH COUNTY, p. 556.

Henry & his brother Horace & probably George were veterans of the War of 1812 although their service was very brief. Henry & Horace served from 2 Sept to 3 Dec, 1814, in Daniel McFaul Smith's company, an independent battery of the NY State artillery stationed at West Battery, N.Y.. Henry did a lot of militia duty after that. He was discharged October 10, 1832, from the Ninth Regiment of the First Brigade of the New York State Artillery after seven years service and declared exempt from military duty in the state except in the case of insurrection or invasion.

He moved to New London, Conn., after his marriage in 1817; back to New York City in 1822, lived there until 1832 (see below); to Holly, Orleans Co., N.Y. in 1832, where his older brother George, a carpenter, was living

NYC Directories list him at following dates, occupations & addresses:

1825-6	Cartman	23 Suffolk
1826-7	Cartman	33 Suffolk
1827-9	Cartman	34 Suffolk
1830	Constable	11 Lewis

HUSBAND Lebbeus PORTER-71 Yr of Birth 1742
WIFE Ruth LYMAN-72 Yr of Birth 1765

1832-3	Constable	42 Suffolk

In 1837 Henry & his brother Selah & their families moved to Wisconsin. They arrived in the town of Troy, Walworth Co., October 9, 1837, & joined their brother Samuel, who had built a log house there the year before. On December 24, 1837, Henry & his family moved into their own log house, at that time minus a roof. Henry farmed in Adams Township for many years on a site that can be identified with some accuracy to this day.

In the fall of 1854 Henry & Ann moved to Palmyra, Jefferson County, Wis., no doubt to be close to their son Acors & his family & their daughter Laura Irene, last child living at home (1850 Census), who had been married that previous February & had moved to Palmyra.

Henry's nephew, William Henry Porter, son of his brother Selah, wrote from Adams to his uncle Acors 12 Dec 1856, that "Uncle H.C.P. is at Lone Rock some 120 miles west of here keeping a saloon & Aunt Ann is living in Palmyra along with her son-in-law Walter Palmer........"

Both he & his wife are buried in Hillside Cemetery there. [Corner of 4th & 6th Sts. RKF visited & took photographs of the site in 1990]. His stone identifies him as a Mason.

CHILD 4 - Philo Albert PORTER-76

Source:DPA. Much documentation & historical information in file.

NY City Directory lists a Philo A. Porter in the following years, occupation & addresses:

1827-8	Cartman	36 Suffolk
1828-9	Cartman	36 Suffolk

He moved back to Long Island after his second marriage there in 1826. All of his children were born there & two are buried there--in the years 1828-37. It is unlikely, therefore, that the person listed above in NYC in those years is the same as this person. Needs further research.

Moved to Porter Co. about 1838. A grocer in Valparaiso in 1850. Justice of the Peace from 1860 on, known as "Squire Porter". Admitted to Salem Presbyterian Church from Valparaiso Oct 1847; dismissed to Valparaiso Feb. 1854.

Came to Troy, Walworth Co.,Wis, 1837. His wife's obituary states " In September 1837, they landed in Milwaukee, traveling by Erie Canal to Buffalo, and steamboat on the lakes. From Milwaukee to their claim in Walworth County the trail was through heavy forests, but with a yoke of oxen and a lumber wagon, walking or riding, with an infant in her arms, the trip was made, and in their humble log house they commenced life in Wisconsin. That house and home became the shelter and rondezvous of most of the historical personages that figure in the early settlement and organization of the state".

He laid claim to his land, 160 acres in Section 17, on October 10, 1838. The following year his two brothers, Henry C. & Selah, came with their families to join him, & moved in with him. At one point the log house held 16 people. It was also used for a time as a tavern. Their homes, near the western central portion of Troy, were known as the "Porter Settlement".

He moved to Baraboo in 1850, where he again worked as a carpenter & builder. In 1851 he bought 6 building lots & "during the years that followed built many of the leading residences and frame store buildings erected here". He also was a builder in several other states. He was working in Mississippi when Civil War broke out, "subsequently experiencing some difficulty in reaching the North." He was a journeyman carpenter after the war, away from home long intervals.

In a letter written Sept 26, 1859, his son Charles gives his father's address as "Lexington, Holmes Co., Miss.", & says Samuel " talks of going to Pensecola Bay on the coast of Florida to spend the winter".

His file contains 4 long, affectionate letters to his niece ALPK from those years, in which he gives many details of his journeys & working situations. He often asks about her children, particularly Selah Samuel, whom he always calls "Samuel Selah", because he is so pleased the baby is named for him. It is quite apparent from these letters that he and Pamelia, his wife, lived separate lives for at least the last 15 to 20 years of her life. In a letter to ALPK written 5 May 1867, he speaks of leaving "a city full & sat down in the woods".."I think I spent many of the happiest days of my life in that little cabbin(sic) 3 miles from any boddy(sic)".....&"..tried as by fire (to) put confidence in mankind & they proved false and I will say my greatist(sic) enemy was that of my own household".... Later, in the letter dated Jan. 25, 1874, he writes "I have drifted around considerable since we last parted...made it home in Richland Co. one or 2 years with Laura Palmer " [Laura Irene Porter-RIN #237, his niece]...& details his work & experience in the South.

At age 77, he was with his brother Selah at death, a witness to Selah's will, made 3 days before his death.

In his last years, he lived with & did carpentry for his daughter Cornelia & her husband, Lemuel Stanley. In the last reference to him in family letters, Antoinette wrote to William from Whitewater, where she was nursing her dying sister Viola Porter, Apr. 16, 1884," ..I also had a letter from Uncle Sam. He writes he has to work pretty hard for Stanley & dont get much pay. Poor old man I think it time he had a rest". [This comment is especially interesting because Mr. Stanley was a very wealthy man & Samuel at that point was 84 years old !] Whatever the circumstances, he lived with the Stanleys until his death & is buried in their plot.

A Mason & a Republican. Belonged to Methodist Episcopal Church.

Obituary (Chippewa Falls Herald) says "Few men have had such wide experience in the world as Mr. Porter....he was once shipwrecked on an ocean whaler and remained on an island days without food.....few portions of the country but what he has been over...." [To date there is no information to document the mention of the shipwreck] . A photograph of him taken at age 86 is in the file.

His niece Antoinette made the following entry in her journal [Vol 2] "Monday, Jan 6, 1890: Received a letter from Cornelia Stanley saying Uncle Samuel Porter died at Chippewa Falls Dec 17 1889. If he had lived until July 5th 1890 he would have been 90 years old. I shall miss his good long letters. He was the last of my father's family. Aunt Pamelia died about five years ago."

CHILD 7 - Selah Smith PORTER-64

Source: ALPK Holo. gen. circa 1892; Censuses; Newspaper clippings & obituaries; Family journals & letters; Milwaukee Historical Society Library

He lived & worked in NYC as a young man. In the HISTORY OF WALWORTH COUNTY, p.556,it says in part "Selah S. Porter, after leaving his home on Long Island, went to the City of New York & learned the printer's trade." In 1827 he was accepted into membership in the New York Typographical Society. [The framed original certificate still hangs in the Philadelphia home of his granddaughters Dorothy & Carol King]. Between January & June of 1830, several pre-nuptial letters from Cornelia (who was living with family in Patchogue) are addressed to Selah at "Corner of Fulton & William Streets, No. 100, New York". (See file).

First Marriage: Doc. ALPK Holo. Gen.

After his marriage to Cornelia he is listed in NYC Directories at the following years, addresses & occupation:

1831-2	Printer	397 Grand
1834-5	Printer	18 Amity Lane [now 3rd St.]
1835-6	Printer	206 Wooster
1836-7	Printer	206 Wooster
1837-8	Printer	206 Wooster
1838-9	Printer	206 Wooster

ALPK's holographic genealogy gives the following addresses at birth for his children: Obed Sears, 1832: corner of Grand & Attorney St.; William Henry,1833: Mott St.; Antoinette Louise, 1835: Wooster St.; Lebbeus Effingham, 1837: Wooster St. All of these check with the above listed addresses except the one for William Henry. Interesting to note that his uncle, Selah's brother Joel Bartlett Porter, was listed in the NYC Directory in 1833-34 at 199 Mott St.

He moved his family from NYC to West Troy, Walworth Co., Wis. in 1838. He is recorded in 1840 Wis. census,Walworth Co., p. 205 (household: M: 2 under 5; 1 5-10; 1 30-40. F: 1 under 10; 1 30-40.), living contiguously to his brothers Samuel L. & Henry C., also to (Rev) James F. Flanders, newly married to Henry's daughter Ann Elisabeth. He is also listed there in the census of 1842.

Some time in 1841-42, he returned to Milwaukee and the printing trade, where he was the printer of the MILWAUKEE COURIER. The newspaper had been established in 1836 as THE ADVERTISER. It was purchased in 1841 by Josiah A. Noonan, who changed its name to the MILWAUKEE COURIER & apparently hired Selah to print it. [Milwaukee County Historical Society archives, Microfilm #1 Mar 27, 1841-July 31, 1844 give no mention of staff. The paper was pub. weekly at three dollars per annum in advance.

We know from family letters of that time that Cornelia & the children stayed in Troy,& Selah returned there to visit them as often as possible. Their letters to each other are filled with domestic details & those concerning running the farm in Selah's absence. We also know that Selah was living with, or very near his publisher, as he mentions Mrs. Noonan's care for his foot when he hurt it; he also speaks specifically of Mr. Noonan in another letter. We do not know as yet how long this arrangement continued or when Selah returned to Troy to work & live. An editorial in the Saturday, April 10, 1841 edition of tne MILWAUKEE COURIER speaks of the poor condition of roads in & leading to Milwaukee----- "Most of the citizens of Rock & Walworth counties do now, & are anxious to continue to do, their trading at this place if the roads are such that they can travel it without sacrificing too much time and suffering too much inconvenience."

By 1844 he seems to have resettled in Troy, farmed there & held many civic offices. He was town treasurer in 1862. In other years he was either one of three supervisors or the chairman of the group. Those years (all this from History of Walworth Co.) are: 1844, 1845,1846, 1854, 1856, 1860, 1862 & 1865. His farm land was adjacent to land later purchased by John & Hannah King, on opposite sides of the road in the place where County Road #20 curves, just south of the Adams Cemetery & the old yellow brick school house. (cf. ALPK's journal). (See county land map in file). It's no wonder there were so many marriages between Kings & Porters!

HUSBAND Lebbeus PORTER-71 Yr of Birth 1742
WIFE Ruth LYMAN-72 Yr of Birth 1765

In 1850, after Cornelia's death & before his re-marriage, he is in the Milwaukee Co.,Milwaukee census, as follows: Selah S. Porter, 44, printer, b. NY; Centinette (sic), 14, b. NY; Irving, 10; Viola, 8; both b. Wis. (his son Lebbeus, 12, is in the census living with Lyman Smith, farmer, in Walworth Co.)

Second Marriage: Occurred after 1850 census, before 1860 census. Emeline D., his 2nd wife, is named in the 1860 census, age 44. She is also mentioned in several family letters & in his will.(See file)

Antoinette's journal gives us vivid details of Selah's death. He had made a long trip East, stopping to see several family members on Long Island & in upper New York state. Letters in the file from both Mary Dan (his wife's sister-in-law) in Bellport, L.I. & one he sent from Corfu,N.Y.while he was visiting his sister-in-law Sarah Warren Porter & his nephews, George Anson,Jr. & Henry P. Porter, addressed to "Dear wife and family" both attest to his visits & to his seriously impaired physical condition before he returned home. In her journal, Antoinette spells out her father's rapidly deteriorating health. On 22 Oct she wrote " Rec'd letter from sister Vie with sad news about father. He went East on a visit for his health. Came back as far as Corfu. Was unable to come farther alone. Telegraphed for Irve to come for him. Poor poor father, his stay with us will not be much longer. How well I would like to see him once more. Finally, she writes on Sat.,Nov.2, that she has received another letter from home which confirms her fears, that "he died Sunday morning Oct. 20th, 1867.

His hand-written will (Copy in file) was written Oct. 17, 1867, just three days before his death, & was witnessed by his brother Samuel Lyman Porter. He named his sons Lebbeus E. Porter & Irving Bayant Porter his Executors. In it he left He ordered the sum of $2000 "to be left intact & kept at interest for the sole use & benefit of my dear wife Emeline D. Porter & be paid to her annually as the sums shall fall due." He further stipulated that she be allowed to "invest any part of the principle sum of two thousand dollars in a homested", should she prefer to do so. The remainder of his estate, just over $6,000.00 he divided evenly between his four children. One noteworthy exception was his instruction that his grandson Selah S. King be given the sum of $100 from "the share of my daughter Viola C. Porter",& that his watch be "kept by my daughter Viola C. Porter until my grandson Willie P. King shall arrive at the age of Eighteen years & that then it be given to said Willie P. King". He ordered that his home be sold & the proceeds evenly divided among his children, & that his household furniture "be divided equally between my wife Emeline D. Porter & my daughter Viola C. Porter as they shall agree & if unable to agree to be divided by a third party to be selected by them".

When his son Lebbeus died, his daughter Antoinette wrote graphically in her journal [12 April 1870] that he " was buried ...in the graveyard where Father and Mother & Bro William lie near the yellow school house in Troy, Wisconsin." After several visits & an intense search, in 1991 JGK & RKF rediscovered the tombstone, long buried under an overgrown lilac bush near their children's several markers, under which Selah is buried with Cornelia in the peaceful Adams cemetery.(Photos & sketch in file). Contact with the cemetery's sexton has resulted in having the brush cleared away, so their grave site will be preserved

Source: ALPK holo. gen. Also official death rec. (see below) confirms age at death & birthplace. Search of church & civil records on Shelter Island, summer 1989, failed to yield any further documentation to confirm data on him in ALPK genealogy.

Named Joel for mother's brother Joel Lyman (RIN# 122); Bartlett for his mother's mother, Sarah Bartlett (RIN# 81)

Marriage date & place based on ALPK Holo. Gen. c. 1892. She said he had no children. DPA doc. the following:1850 Census: NYC 15th Ward Porter, Joel 22 (?? 42), Cartman; Mary,28 ; Sarah, 8; Gabriel Beatty, 60, no occupation. All b. N.Y.. No other doc. of child found to date.

Letter from Cornelia Dan (in Patchogue, L.I.) to Joel's brother, Selah (in NYC), written Jan. 8, 1830, says" I was happy to hear of your brother's marriage..." suggests that Selah attended his brother's wedding.

CHILD 5 - Sobeskie T. (William) PORTER-259

Source: ALP holo. gen. & letters/ DPA records & letter/cem. records

Railroad engineer; Wealthy. Lived in Rochester, N.Y. on Alexander St.

DPA thinks (& RKF agrees)he is really the man who in later life signed himself as Wm. S. . All evidence points to this fact:

1. George Porter Jr. in his vanity bio names five children who grew to maturity: Henry P., Delia M., George A., Warren S. & Sobeskie T.. ALPK said Sobeskie was a railroad engineer well off & living in Rochester. Sobeskie appears in the George Sr. & Sarah family in Rochester in the 1850 census age 17.

2. There is no Sobeskie Porter in the 1860 New York census or in any Rochester city directories

3. The 1851-52 Rochester directory shows William s. living with George Sr. &

Jr.. The 1855-56 one shows him with Warren S., both at the St. Paul St. address

4. The obituary of 6 July 1892 for Henry P. Porter (see file) names two surviving brothers, George A. of Corfu & W.S. of Rochester

5. In the 1900 Rochester census living with daughter Jessica & Avery B. Davis, Wm. S. Porter, father-in-law, b. May 1832 (ALPK's year for Sobeskie), a locomotive engineer (ALPK's profession for Sobeskie)

6. William S. is buried in the family plot with George & Sarah & there is still no Sobeskie!!

Died of cerebral apoplexy. Buried east side of family plot.

HUSBAND - Henry Charles PORTER-75

Doc: ALPK Holo. Gen.1892 Family Group Sheet DPA, sent RKF 3-22-1989; HISTORY OF WALWORTH COUNTY, p. 556.

Henry & his brother Horace & probably George were veterans of the War of 1812 although their service was very brief. Henry & Horace served from 2 Sept to 3 Dec, 1814, in Daniel McFaul Smith's company, an independent battery of the NY State artillery stationed at West Battery, N.Y.. Henry did a lot of militia duty after that. He was discharged October 10, 1832, from the Ninth Regiment of the First Brigade of the New York State Artillery after seven years service and declared exempt from military duty in the state except in the case of insurrection or invasion.

He moved to New London, Conn., after his marriage in 1817; back to New York City in 1822, lived there until 1832 (see below); to Holly, Orleans Co., N.Y. in 1832, where his older brother George, a carpenter, was living

Quote letter to Bro. Selah in 1833 from Holley

NYC Directories list him at following dates, occupations & addresses:

1825-6	Cartman	23 Suffolk
1826-7	Cartman	33 Suffolk
1827-9	Cartman	34 Suffolk
1830	Constable	11 Lewis
1830-1	Constable	21 Hester
1831-2	Constable	45 Suffolk
1832-3	Constable	42 Suffolk

In 1837 Henry & his brother Selah & their families moved to Wisconsin. They arrived in the town of Troy, Walworth Co., October 9, 1837, & joined their brother Samuel, who had built a log house there the year before. On December 24, 1837, Henry & his family moved into their own log house, at that time minus a roof. Henry farmed in Adams Township for many years on a site that can be identified with some accuracy to this day.

In the fall of 1854 Henry & Ann moved to Palmyra, Jefferson County, Wis., no doubt to be close to their son Acors & his family & their daughter Laura Irene, last child living at home (1850 Census), who had been married that previous February & had moved to Palmyra.

Henry's nephew, William Henry Porter, son of his brother Selah, wrote from Adams to his uncle Acors 12 Dec 1856, that "Uncle H.C.P. is at Lone Rock some 120 miles west of here keeping a saloon & Aunt Ann is living in Palmyra along with her son-in-law Walter Palmer......."

Both he & his wife are buried in Hillside Cemetery there. RKF visited & took photographs of the site in 1990. His stone identifies him as a Mason.

CHILD 3 - Acors Sheffield PORTER-236

Sources: ALPK holo.gen. circa 1892; DPA records 3-22-1989

Named for his mother's father, Acors Sheffield (see her note)

According to DPA: Lived in New York City as small boy. Moved to Holley, Orleans Co., N.Y. in fall of 1832. Arrived in Troy Township, Wisconsin, 9 Oct 1837 with his parents & family (He was 15).

Marriage was performed by Rev. J.F.Flanders (his sister's husband).

He & his wife moved to Palmyra in the fall of 1854, & he lived there the rest of his life except for two years in Whitewater.

He enlisted 12 Sept 1864 in the volunteer service & served as a Captain of Co. G 42nd Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, & continued to serve until the end of the war. This was a late organized regiment that did guard duty on the southern borders of the North. Listed in Civil War Pension file

He was a farmer, Justice of the Peace, Insurance Agent. He held several civil positions, including town clerk for 12 years; village clerk; & supervisor. He was the first man to sustain a Sunday school in Palmyra.

HUSBAND Philo Albert PORTER-76 Yr of Birth 1797
WIFE Elizabeth CORWIN-238 Yr of Birth 1797

HUSBAND - Philo Albert PORTER-76

Source:DPA. Much documentation & historical information in file.

NY City Directory lists a Philo A. Porter in the following years, occupation & addresses:

1827-8	Cartman	36 Suffolk
1828-9	Cartman	36 Suffolk

He moved back to Long Island after his second marriage there in 1826. All of his children were born there & two are buried there--in the years 1828-37. It is unlikely, therefore, that the person listed above in NYC in those years is the same as this person. Needs further research.

Moved to Porter Co. about 1838. A grocer in Valparaiso in 1850. Justice of the Peace from 1860 on, known as "Squire Porter". Admitted to Salem Presbyterian Church from Valparaiso Oct 1847; dismissed to Valparaiso Feb. 1854.

Had no children by 1st marriage to Louisa Schofield

Gravesite visited, photographed by RKF June 1990 (See file)

Other marriages:

Louisa SCOFIELD-444

WIFE - Elizabeth CORWIN-238

Gravesite visited, documented by RKF June 1990. Unable to gain entry to cemetery, now locked & abandoned.

Her will (see file for photocopy) mentions leaving her "Colage bible being two volumes" to her daughter Ruth Ann Osborn & her " old family bible" to her dsughter Louisa S. Cass.

CHILD 1 - Jane Elizabeth PORTER-239

Source: ALPK Genealogic chart & DPA(with extensive documentation)

Her husband was the owner & publisher of the Valparaiso Republican, also joint editor. On 25 April 1861 he sold out his paper to "go to war", but the payments were not kept up & it reverted to him while he was in the army.Jane published it for him beginning 10 April 1862. (See file for her particularly flowery obituary for her father written during this time).

According to a DAR source in a 1974 volume of Indiana DAR records, she died of a disease she contracted while nursing hospitalized Union soldiers (see DPA notes)

RKF visited Valparaiso in 1990 & was unable to gain entrance to the Old City Cemetery, now locked inside of tall metal fencing,abandoned & quite run down.

Came to Troy, Walworth Co.,Wis, 1837. His wife's obituary states " In September 1837, they landed in Milwaukee, traveling by Erie Canal to Buffalo, and steamboat on the lakes. From Milwaukee to their claim in Walworth County the trail was through heavy forests, but with a yoke of oxen and a lumber wagon, walking or riding, with an infant in her arms, the trip was made, and in their humble log house they commenced life in Wisconsin. That house and home became the shelter and rondezvous of most of the historical personages that figure in the early settlement and organization of the state".

He laid claim to his land, 160 acres in Section 17, on October 10, 1838. The following year his two brothers, Henry C. & Selah, came with their families to join him, & moved in with him. At one point the log house held 16 people. It was also used for a time as a tavern. Their homes, near the western central portion of Troy, were known as the "Porter Settlement".

He moved to Baraboo in 1850, where he again worked as a carpenter & builder. In 1851 he bought 6 building lots & "during the years that followed built many of the leading residences and frame store buildings erected here". He also was a builder in several other states. He was working in Mississippi when Civil War broke out, "subsequently experiencing some difficulty in reaching the North." He was a journeyman carpenter after the war, away from home long intervals.

In a letter written Sept 26, 1859, his son Charles gives his father's address as "Lexington, Holmes Co., Miss.", & says Samuel " talks of going to Pensecola Bay on the coast of Florida to spend the winter".

His file contains 4 long, affectionate letters to his niece ALPK from those years, in which he gives many details of his journeys & working situations. He often asks about her children, particularly Selah Samuel, whom he always calls "Samuel Selah", because he is so pleased the baby is named for him. It is quite apparent from these letters that he and Pamelia, his wife, lived separate lives for at least the last 15 to 20 years of her life. In a letter to ALPK written 5 May 1867, he speaks of leaving "a city full & sat down in the woods".."I think I spent many of the happiest days of my life in that little cabbin(sic) 3 miles from any boddy(sic)".....&"..tried as by fire (to) put confidence in mankind & they proved false and I will say my greatist(sic) enemy was that of my own household".... Later, in the letter dated Jan. 25, 1874, he writes "I have drifted around considerable since we last parted...made it home in Richland Co. one or 2 years with Laura Palmer " [Laura Irene Porter-RIN #237, his niece]...& details his work & experience in the South.

At age 77, he was with his brother Selah at death, a witness to Selah's will, made 3 days before his death.

In his last years, he lived with & did carpentry for his daughter Cornelia & her Lemuel Stanley. In the last reference to him in family letters, Antoinette wrote to William from Whitewater, where she is nursing her dying sister Viola, Apr. 16, 1884," ..I also had a letter from Uncle Sam. He writes he has to work pretty hard for Stanley & dont get much pay. Poor old man. I think it time he had a rest". [This comment is especially interesting because Mr. Stanley was a very wealthy man & Samuel at that point was 84 years old !] Whatever the circumstances, he lived with the Stanleys until his death & is buried in their plot.

A Mason & a Republican. Belonged to Methodist Episcopal Church.

Obituary (Chippewa Falls Herald) says "Few men have had such wide experience in the world as Mr. Porter....he was once shipwrecked on an ocean whaler and remained on an island days without food.....few portions of the country but what he has been over...." [To date there is no information to document the mention of the shipwreck]

WIFE - Pamelia A. CLARK-243

Source: DPA & newspaper clipping (obituary) in file

According to her obituary, "her ancestors served under Washington both at Trenton & Monmouth."

At the time of her death, she was living in the same home that Samuel built when they first arrived in Baraboo in 1850. From her obituary..."her home was the home & chapel of the early bishops & elders and her reminiscences of early Methodism were a history of the church".

Buried in South Division Section D Lot 13 Block 2

Moved to the west with his family at the age of 5.

Family letters include an affectionate letter from him to his cousin "Nette", written Sept 26, 1859, from Benton, Mississippi, where he was working at an unspecified occupation, saying " I can not say that the times are very hard here. I have a plenty to do and make good wages. I can make from $3.00 to $5.00 dollars per day which was better than what I could make in Wisconsin." He speaks of his father, Samuel Lyman Porter, living 30 miles away, working as a carpenter. He writes of his life as a carefree bachelor & his warm memories of their childhood together in Wisconsin. (See file) yet how long this arrangement continued or when Selah returned to Troy to work & live. An editorial in the Saturday, April 10, 1841 edition of tne MILWAUKEE COURIER speaks of the poor condition of roads in & leading to Milwaukee----- "Most of the citizens of Rock & Walworth counties do now, & are anxious to continue to do, their trading at this place if the roads are such that they can travel it without sacrificing too much time and suffering too much inconvenience."

Enrolled for Civil War service at Baraboo Co. F 3rd Reg of Cav as a Pvt. Discharged at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas 7 July 1865. Was 5'7&1/2",blue eyes,dark hair.

By 1844 he seems to have resettled in Troy, farmed there & held many civic offices. He was town treasurer in 1862. In other years he was either one of three supervisors or the chairman of the group. Those years (all this from History of Walworth Co.) are: 1844, 1845,1846, 1854, 1856, 1860, 1862 & 1865. His farm land was adjacent to land later purchased by John & Hannah King, on opposite sides of the road in the place where County Road #20 curves, just south of the Adams Cemetery & the old yellow brick school house. (cf. ALPK's journal). (See county land map in file). It's no wonder there were so many marriages between Kings & Porters!

In 1850, after Cornelia's death & before his re-marriage, he is in the Milwaukee Co.,Milwaukee census, as follows: Selah S. Porter, 44, printer, b. NY; Centinette (sic), 14, b. NY; Irving, 10; Viola, 8; both b. Wis. { his son Lebbeus, 12, is in the census living with Lyman Smith, farmer, in Walworth Co.}

Second Marriage: Occurred after 1850 census, before 1860 census. Emeline D., his 2nd wife, is named in the 1860 census, age 44. She is also mentioned in several family letters & in his will.(See file)

Antoinette's journal gives us vivid details of Selah's death. He had made a long trip East, stopping to see several family members on Long Island & in upper New York state. Letters in the file from both Mary Dan (his wife's sister-in-law) in Bellport, L.I. & one he sent from Corfu,N.Y.while he was visiting his sister-in-law Sarah Warren Porter & his nephews, George Anson,Jr. & Henry P. Porter, addressed to "Dear wife and family" both attest to his visits & to his seriously impaired physical condition before he returned home. In her journal, Antoinette spells out her father's rapidly deteriorating health. On 22 Oct she wrote " Rec'd letter from sister Vie with sad news about father. He went East on a visit for his health. Came back as far as Corfu. Was unable to come farther alone. Telegraphed for Irve to come for him. Poor poor father, his stay with us will not be much longer. How well I would like to see him once more. Finally, she writes on Sat.,Nov.2, that she has received another letter from home which confirms her fears, that "he died Sunday morning Oct. 20th, 1867.

His hand-written will (Copy in file) was written Oct. 17, 1867, just three days before his death, & was witnessed by his brother Samuel Lyman Porter. He named his sons Lebbeus E. Porter & Irving Bayant Porter his Executors. In it he left He ordered the sum of $2000 "to be left intact & kept at interest for the sole use & benefit of my dear wife Emeline D. Porter & be paid to her annually as the sums shall fall due." He further stipulated that she be allowed to "invest any part of the principle sum of two thousand dollars in a homested", should she prefer to do so. The remainder of his estate, just over $6,000.00 he divided evenly between his four children. One noteworthy exception was his instruction that his grandson Selah S. King be given the sum of $100 from "the share of my daughter Viola C. Porter",& that his watch be "kept by my daughter Viola C. Porter until my grandson Willie P. King shall arrive at the age of Eighteen years & that then it be given to said Willie P. King". He ordered that his home be sold & the proceeds evenly divided among his children, & that his household furniture "be divided equally between my wife Emeline D. Porter & my daughter Viola C. Porter as they shall agree & if unable to agree to be divided by a third party to be selected by them".

When his son Lebbeus died, his daughter Antoinette wrote graphically in her journal [12 April 1870] that he " was buried ...in the graveyard where Father and Mother & Bro William lie near the yellow school house in Troy, Wisconsin." After several visits & an intense search, in 1991 JGK & RKF rediscovered the tombstone, long buried under an overgrown lilac bush near their children's several markers, under which Selah is buried with Cornelia in the peaceful Adams cemetery.(Photos & sketch in file). Contact with the cemetery's sexton has resulted in having the brush cleared away, so their grave site will be preserved

WIFE - Cornelia Ann DAN-65
Doc: ALPK holo. gen.

This truly pioneer woman, born of a seafaring Long Island family, traveled with her husband & young family from an urban life in early Manhattan through the unsettled wilds of the mid-west, stopping & dying at an early age in the primitive & undeveloped rural Wisconsin. Her brother's wife, Mary Brown Dan, who never left Long Island, wrote letters to Cornelia as long as she lived, then continued her correspondence with Cornelia's daughter Antoinette, newly settled settled in rural Minnesota, and the family ties remained intact throughout both lifetimes as well as those of both their daughters.

RKF & JGF have visited the place where Cornelia was born, her early home in New York City after her marriage, the rural Wisconsin county where she lived the remainder of her life, and the very home on Long Island from which her sister-in-law Mary wrote her letters. We know Cornelia from her own letters to her fiance & later to him as her husband,as well as from her daughter Antoinette's references to her in her journal. So it was especially poignant to RKF & JGF in 1990 to rediscover her grave in the lovely small, well kept and peaceful cemetery where she rests next to her husband and four of her children: Lebbeus, William, Irve & Viola. (Photographs in file)

Her death was obviously sudden & unexpected. Interviews with members of the Adams Cemetery Association in 1992 established that she was the first person to die in Troy Twp.. The association was formed in response to her death, the organizing meeting being held 6 October, 1849, little more than two weeks after her death. Land for the cemetery was given by neighbors, the Chatfield family & later it was given the name Adams Cemetery. (See Porter note in file for more details).

The address for his family in the NYC Directory for 1831-32 is 397 Grand St.

CHILD 2 - William Henry PORTER-67

No Williams in the generation before him in the Porter lineage; only a brother-in-law of his mother. Henry, his middle name is the name of his father's older brother. (May be useful for Porter research)

According to ALPK's genealogy, he was born on Mott St. His father is not listed in the NYC Directory in that year; however, his uncle Joel Bartlett Porter (RIN# 79) is listed at 196 Mott St. that year.

He was 5 years old when he moved west with his family. At age 16, he was named a trustee of the newly forming Adams Cemetery Association when his mother died.

He was obviously in poor health for some time before his death. A copy of a letter dated 12 Dec 1856 to his Uncle Philo Porter (RIN# 76), just three months before his death is in the file. In it he says "my health is improving lately. I am under Dr Fitchs care now he says I have the liver complaint."

In the same letter he writes at length & quite eloquently of his political convictions & his rationale for his vote for James Buchanan for President.

His death date is documented in an entry dated March 7, 1868 which his sister Antoinette wrote in her journal "...Eleven years ago this morning that brother William ~~Willie~~ died. It was a cold chilly day."

CHILD 3 - Antoinette Louise "Nette" PORTER-50

Doc: Birth doc. her holographic genealogy of her family. (See note below, also file) NY Pub. Lib. MF 315 M for birth address conf.; Censuses; letters

Born at 206 Wooster St. in NYC. (Doc. from her genealogy, specific house number from NYC Directory for 1835-36.) Wooster St. formed one border of what later became Washington Square. Shown clearly on an 1811 map (See file) just off Canal St., 3 blocks off Broadway, between Prince & Grand Streets.

Often referred to in letters from husband and others as "Nette" or "Nett", and signed her letters to them that way. Always signed official documents with her full name.

She was only three years old when her family moved west, yet she was the connecting link between her mother's family in the east and those in the west. She is the premier source for King & Porter family information. One of her major contributions to research in her family was the holographic genealogic chart & narrative she researched and compiled, some time between Jan. 1, 1892 (the last recorded date) & her own death in March, 1896). [Original document is in possession of Carol King, RKF has copy]. In addition to the thorough and generally accurate genealogy detailed above, she kept two journals from 1866 to 1894 which details the pioneering move of the Kings and Porters to Jackson & the development of that settlement. She also saved family letters dating from 1829 until shortly before her death, which provide invaluable source material on the King, Porter & Dan families. [Minnesota Historical Society has the original letters, RKF has copies]. Antoinette was obviously very aware that her notes and accounts of life were important, and she records events with a historian's eye. A couple of examples will illustrate this quality:

One of her letters to her husband, written April 17, 1865, gives many details of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, starting with ".....I must write to night to inform you of the sad intelligence we received Saturday evening although you may hear of it ere this reaches you. Our President is dead (under lined) shot through the head by a miserable villian and Sec Seward was stabbed three or four times & his son had his skull broken...........Lincoln was shot in the theatre. They may have caught the fellow his name is Booth he is son of the tragedian Booth of Chicago........" (See file).

An obviously assertive wife, she constantly cajoled William to write more often, and to tell her what he wants to name their new baby. She teased him at one point, saying "....By the way, ain't you afraid I will turn democrat--you know you used to say I was a democrat". [This from a woman writing 55 years before women's suffrage!]

She began writing her journal in May 1866, as she & William made preparations to move their family to their new home in Jackson. She left Austin, Minn. on May 22, the only woman in a party which included her husband; her two brothers, Lib & Irve Porter; William's two brothers George & Robert King, and their long-time friend from Wisconsin, Charles Heath, as they "started for the West in search of a homestead". On June 1st she writes "Located a homestead in Jackson Jackson Co Minn. Now hurrah [underlined] for the breaking plow & broad-axe". They returned to Austin [after 6 weeks when they gathered logs to be ready to build their homes when they returned in the fall] , arriving there July 14th, "tired, dirty, sleepy....have had a pretty rough time for the past six weeks. Living on sour bread [underlined]."

The actual migration by conestoga wagon began Thursday October 4th, took 9 days, & ended Friday, Oct.12th, when she wrote "Arrived at our new roofless home about 10 PM, dirty tired & hungry & wind blowing a hurricane". An article from the Jackson Co. Pilot (9 Feb 1930-see file) describes the living conditions she & her family endured, sharing living quarters with the Barneys under twelve boards that were "all that could be procured at the mill" until William & the others could build log cabins. Any Minnesota native can relate to the kind of weather that means they endured in late October for at least two weeks until they were under shelter. The clipping mentioned above goes on to say "Mrs. King took boarders that fall".

She & William & their children moved into the village of Jackson in the fall of 1872. They lived for several years in a house owned by Mr. Frost. In 1878 they built a large home on the outskirts of Jackson, and moved into it on May 21. Her second journal is replete with details of finishing & settling that home. There are also several photographs in the file believed to be of that home.

She was an active civic leader all her life. (See numerous references in file). She founded or helped found many of Jackson's civic and secular organizations, and her journal is replete with descriptions of many of those beginnings. Two of the most interest are the note on Sunday July 7, 1867"......Organized Sabbath School last Sunday at our house. Had six scholars. Had ten today"; also, on January 15, 1868, she notes " .....school meeting at C.H. Heaths, the first school meeting in Dist. No. 9".

She was also a loving mother & grandmother to her large family. When her son Willie's first wife died, she provided a home & cared for her little granddaughter Mary King (RIN# 200), then seven months old, until she (ALPK) died when Mary was 10. According to a newspaper tribute to her at the time of her death [see file] ,Antoinette's last statement, as she died, was " Be good to each other and above all take care of little Mary".

Buried with her and William in their family plot (photos in file) are her granddaughter Bessie Viola King, infant daughter of Willie P. King and his first wife Mary Trumbull; nephew George Irving Porter, age 1 &1/2, son of her brother Lebbeus & Ellen Porter (his birth & death are thoroughly recorded in ALPK journal); niece Mabel King, born to Robert H. & Minnie King, who lived 1 year 5 months; and daughter-in-law Mary E. Trumbull King, first wife of Willie Porter King. Directly beside their plot is that of Eliza & Mitch Barney, her sister & brother-in-law and dear companions throughout their lives, constantly mentioned in her journal. Immediately behind this plot are the graves of her son John & his family. Her son Willie & numerous members of his family are buried in the same cemetery, as are several of her grandchildren in a nearby plot. Carved on the tombstone of Antoinette & William are the words "Here is sweet rest". One certainly hopes that is so, for they richly deserve it.

CHILD 4 - Lebbeus Effingham "Lib" PORTER-68

Named for his grandfather Lebbeus Porter (RIN# 71). His middle name is the name of a town north of London, & may provide a clue to his Porter family forebears. Needs research.

He was a year old baby when his family moved west.

Family files provide extensive information about him, including a pre-nuptial letter to Nellie and several letters to William King. The two young couples moved together in 1864 from their homes in Walworth Co. to Eastman, Crawford CO., Wis., & farmed together there. That is the address from Williams letters from Lib were written. William was in army service in "Dixie" Lib was worried about the possibility of being drafted, & relieved to have been exempted by a doctor who "knew him of old". His health was obviously a continuous concern. He wrote many details to William about the disposition of Wm's stock & grain.

Antoinette's journal provides many details about him: the early life on the farms outside Jackson; his prolonged illness with and repeated attempts to recover from tuberculosis; the birth & death of his little son; and the sad final details of his death after several years of a losing battle. He seemed to have almost a mystical feeling he would get better if only he could get back to his Wisconsin home and at the end, leaving behind his wife & little daughters, one of them a weeks-old baby, he persuaded his brother Irve to make a desperate dash with him bedded down in a sleigh for a 100 mile trip in the midst of severe mid-winter snow & ice storms,crossing the semi-frozen Mississippi River by either rail or ferry or both. The trip took 6 days & he lived only a few hours after arriving at his family's home. His wife, Nell & his sister did not have any news of him or his death until April 8th ---21 days after he left them.

Once again, ALPK provides the last news of him when in her journal she tells about the letter she received from her sister Viola (RIN #70) giving the specific details of his funeral & burial. In her entry of Tues 12th April, she writes "Poor boy only live(d) nine hours after he got home. They got to Whitewater Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock & (he) died Sat morn about 1 o'clock. What a tedious journey. It was all Irve could do to get him home alive. Had to carry him in his arms all the way. He died the 26th of March. Was buried the next day Sunday in the graveyard where Father & Mother & Bro William lie near the yellow school house in Troy Wisconsin. Elder Delany from Whitewater preached his funeral sermon. Text in Psalms".

RKF & JGF visited the small & exquisitely tranquil Adams Cemetery in June 1990 We truly felt we had come full circle with Lib.

CHILD 5 - Irving Bayant PORTER-69
Doc: ALPK holo. gen., ALPK journal

Part of the party of family that made the first journey to Jackson from Austin. Returned to Wisconsin within a month,made frequent trips back & forth, seems to have stayed long periods in Jackson to help with crops, building, etc., but to have maintained his primary home in Wisconsin.

1870 US Census, Walworth Co, Whitewater, p. 14, Reel 487, ED 295, Enum date 28 June: Porter, Irving, 30, occ:Bar tended, b. Wis. Living with sister Cornelia Family rescuer: Spent weeks in Jackson caring for his brothjer Lib, made a heroic return to Wisconsin carrying Lib most of the way in heavy winter snow & blizzards; previous to that he responded to a telegraph & went from Wisconsin to Corfu, N.Y., to bring his desperately ill father back to his home.

Died suddenly (of "bilious fever")about 6 months after he came to Wis. Twp. to take Leb home to die.Details of death recorded in ALPK journal. He is buried with his parents & siblings in the peaceful country air of the Adams Cemetery. (See photo in file)

CHILD 6 - Viola Cornelia PORTER-70
Doc:Date of birth: ALPK holographic genealogy; confirmed by her brother's letter, dated 12 Dec 1856. Her middle name is for her mother.

Occupation: Expert seamstress, seems to have earned some of her income by dressmaking, both in Wisconsin and in Jackson on her several months long visits there. In later years, after she inherited her father's home, she ran a boarding house there, & there are many references to her clients in ALPK journal & in letters. (See Family file)

1870 US Census Walworth Co, Whitewater, Reel 487, ED 295, Enum date 28 June, p. 14, Dwelling 102: Porter, Viola, 24, keeping house, b. Wis. Living with brother Irving Lived in town of Whitewater for some years before her death with her father & Emeline, his second wife. In her father's will he instructs his sons to sell the home & divide the proceeds evenly among his children. Further legal action among the surviving siblings resulted in Viola's purchase of the home at auction on 7 Sep 1874, for the sum of $200. This was her home until shortly shortly before her death 10 years later. The house, possibly somewhat modernized, still stands in Whitewater. (See photos in file)In her journal (Vol 2, p. 87, Antoinette states Vie sold her home in November of 1883 & moved to Prairie St., where Antoinette said she had "very pleasant rooms".

Describe Prairie St
where she lived @ the end - also describe
Whitewater ca 1880's

ALPK left Jackson on January 14, 1884, responding to news that Vie was in very poor health, and she stayed with her sister until Vie's death in May. ALPK's letters back home to William during her long stay with Viola, through her wrenching terminal illness make it seem most likely that she died either of tuberculosis or cancer.

Death doc: WALWORTH CO INDEPENDENT, Elkorn,WI, Thurs 29 May, 1884, in column ADAMS: Funeral services for Miss Viola Porter were held in this schoolhouse Monday 10 AM. Her earlier years were spent in this place but (she) resided in Whitewater at the time of her death, which took place Saturday, 24th. She was laid beside her father, mother and three brothers in Adams Cemetery, May 26, the last but one of the family of Selah S. and Cornelia Porter, who were among the first settlers of Troy....Rev. Slade of Whitewater officiared".

ALPK thank you note in Whitewater Register dated May 29, 1889: ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS -----"The undersigned, sister of the late Viola Porter, wishes to express for herself and her departed sister, the most heartfelt gratitude to the many friends who gave so generously of their time and care during her long illness, and after her death (signed) Mrs.W.V. King"

Burial: Antoinette in her journal wrote: We buried her Monday 26 at Troy, Wis. Father, Mother, William, Lib,Irve & Vie are sleeping side by side. After the funeral I returned to Whitewater & settled up her affairs & broke up her little home, which was not a pleasant task."

HUSBAND - Selah Smith PORTER-64

Doc: ALPK Holo. gen. circa 1892; Censuses; Newspaper clippings & obituaries; Family journals & letters; Milwaukee Historical Society Library

Selah grew up in Southington & Shelter Island on Long Island, where his father was a school teacher. Their letters was a school teacher. Their courtship letters suggest strongly that he & Cornelia Dann, his first wife, knew one another & each others families. He moved to New York City as a young man. In the HISTORY OF WALWORTH COUNTY p.556,it says in part "Selah S. Porter, after leaving his home on Long Island, went to the City of New York & learned the printer's trade." In 1827 he was accepted into membership in the New York Typographical Society. { The framed original certificate still hangs in the Philadelphia home of his granddaughters Dorothy & Carol King}. Between January & June of 1830, several pre-nuptial letters from Cornelia (who was living with family in Patchogue) are addressed to Selah at "Corner of Fulton & William Streets, No. 100, New York". (See file).

First Marriage: Doc. ALPK Holo. Gen.

After his marriage to Cornelia he is listed in NYC Directories at the following years, addresses & occupation:

1831-2	Printer	397 Grand
1834-5	Printer	18 Amity Lane {now 3rd St.}
1835-6	Printer	206 Wooster
1836-7	Printer	206 Wooster
1837-8	Printer	206 Wooster
1838-9	Printer	206 Wooster

ALPK's holographic genealogy gives the following addresses at birth for his children: Obed Sears, 1832: corner of Grand & Attorney St.; William Henry,1833: Mott St.; Antoinette Louise, 1835: Wooster St.; Lebbeus Effingham, 1837: Wooster St. All of these check with the above listed addresses except the one for William Henry. Interesting to note that his uncle, Selah's brother Joel Bartlett Porter, was listed in the NYC Directory in 1833-34 at 199 Mott St.

He moved his family from NYC to West Troy, Walworth Co., Wis. Territoy,in 1838.Hisbrother Henry C. moved with him and they jooined another brother, Samuel L., who had preceded them by a year in settling this new land. The united families numbered 16, and the sall log house built by Samuel housed them all & at the same time served as a tavern for others migrating to that area. The Porter fmilies were the basis of what was known as the "Porter Settlement."

Selah moved his family to his own land in the NW qtr. of Section 20, in 1839. He is recorded in 1840 Wis. census,Walworth Co., p. 205 (household: M: 2 under 5;1 5-10; 1 30-40. F: 1 under 10; 1 30-40.), living contiguously to his brothers Samuel L. & Henry C., also to (Rev) James F. Flanders, newly married to Henry's daughter Ann Elisabeth. He is also listed there in the census of 1842.

Some time in 1841-42, he returned to Milwaukee and the printing trade, where he was the printer of the MILWAUKEE COURIER. The newspaper had been established in 1836 as THE ADVERTISER. It was purchased in 1841 by Josiah A. Noonan, who changed its name to the MILWAUKEE COURIER & apparently hired Selah to print it. [Milwaukee County Historical Society archives, Microfilm #1 Mar 27, 1841-July 31, 1844 give no mention of staff. The paper was pub. weekly at three dollars per annum in advance.

We know from family letters of that time that Cornelia & the children stayed in Troy,& Selah returned there to visit them as often as possible. Their letters to each other are filled with domestic details & those concerning running the farm in Selah's absence. We also know that Selah was living with, or very near his publisher, as he mentions Mrs. Noonan's care for his foot when he hurt it; he also speaks specifically of Mr. Noonan in another letter. We do not know as yet how long this arrangement continued or when Selah returned to Troy to work & live. An editorial in the Saturday, April 10, 1841 edition of tne MILWAUKEE COURIER speaks of the poor condition of roads in & leading to Milwaukee----- "Most of the citizens of Rock & Walworth counties do now, & are anxious to continue to do, their trading at this place if the roads are such that they can travel it without sacrificing too much time and suffering too much inconvenience."

By 1844 he seems to have resettled in Troy, farmed there & held many civic offices. He was town treasurer in 1862. In other years he was either one of three supervisors or the chairman of the group. Those years (all this from History of Walworth Co.) are: 1844, 1845,1846, 1854, 1856, 1860, 1862 & 1865. His farm land was adjacent to land later purchased by John & Hannah King, on opposite sides of the road in the place where County Road #20 curves, just south of the Adams Cemetery & the old yellow brick school house. (cf. ALPK's journal). (See county land map in file). It's no wonder there were so many marriages between Kings & Porters!

Cornelia's death in 1849 seems to have been unexpected, and may have been the reason for Selah's next move. In 1850 he and his children were in the Milwaukee Co, town of Milwaukee census, as follows: Selah S. Porter, 44, printer, b. NY; Centinette (sic), 14, b. NY; Irving, 10; Viola, 8; both b. Wis. { his son Lebbeus, 12, in the same census was living with Lyman Smith, farmer, in Walworth Co.}

Second Marriage: In the 1900 US census, Emeline D. Porter, Selah's second wife, recorded that she had been married 47 years. That places the date of this marriage in 1853. Emeline D.Porter is named in the 1860 census for Walworth Co., age 44. She is also mentioned in several family letters & in his will.(See file)

Antoinette's journal gives us vivid details of Selah's death. He had made a long trip East, stopping to see several family members on Long Island & in upper New York state. Letters in the file from both Mary Dan (his wife's sister-in-law) in Bellport, L.I. & one he sent from Corfu,N.Y.while he was visiting his sister-in-law Sarah Warren Porter & his nephews, George Anson,Jr. & Henry P. Porter, addressed to "Dear wife and family" both attest to his visits & to his seriously impaired physical condition before he returned home. In her journal, Antoinette spells out her father's rapidly deteriorating health. On 22 Oct she wrote " Rec'd letter from sister Vie with sad news about father. He went East on a visit for his health. Came back as far as Corfu. Was unable to come farther alone. Telegraphed for Irve to come for him. Poor poor father, his stay with us will not be much longer. How well I would like to see him once more. Finally, she writes on Sat.,Nov.2, that she has received another letter from home which confirms her fears, that "he died Sunday morning Oct. 20th, 1867.

His hand-written will (Copy in file) was written Oct. 17, 1867, just three days before his death, & was witnessed by his brother Samuel Lyman Porter. He named his sons Lebbeus E. Porter & Irving Bayant Porter his Executors. In it he left He ordered the sum of $2000 "to be left intact & kept at interest for the sole use & benefit of my dear wife Emeline D. Porter & be paid to her annually as the sums shall fall due." He further stipulated that she be allowed to "invest any part of the principle sum of two thousand dollars in a homested", should she prefer to do so. The remainder of his estate, just over $6,000.00 he divided evenly between his four children. One noteworthy exception was his instruction that his grandson Selah S. King be given the sum of $100 from "the share of my daughter Viola C. Porter",& that his watch be "kept by my daughter Viola C. Porter until my grandson Willie P. King shall arrive at the age of Eighteen years & that then it be given to said Willie P. King". He ordered that his home be sold & the proceeds evenly divided among his children, & that his household furniture "be divided equally between my wife Emeline D. Porter & my daughter Viola C. Porter as they shall agree & if unable to agree to be divided by a third party to be selected by them".

When his son Lebbeus died, his daughter Antoinette wrote graphically in her journal [12 April 1870] that he " was buried ...in the graveyard where Father and Mother & Bro William lie near the yellow school house in Troy, Wisconsin." After several visits & an intense search, in 1991 JGK & RKF rediscovered the tombstone, long buried under an overgrown lilac bush near their children's several markers, under which Selah is buried with Cornelia in the peaceful Adams cemetery.(Photos & sketch in file). Contact with the cemetery's sexton has resulted in having the brush cleared away, so their grave site will be preserved Selah & Cornelia now rest forever in a peaceful corner of a world they helped create.

Palmyra, according to her later doc. in 1900 Census [see below]

1860 US Census Walworth Co., Wis lists "Emeline D., age 44, wife of Selah Porter.

Family letters indicate that she left Whitewater shortly after Selah's death on 20 Oct 1867. He willed her the sum of $2000, to be paid annually, with an additional stipulation that she be allowed to "invest any part of the principal sum of two thousand dollars in a homested" should she prefer to do so. That seems to have been what she did, as in the 1870 US Census Jefferson CO, WI, village of Palmyra, we find Porter, Emeline D., 53, F, W, keeping house, value of real estate $400; value personal property $900; b. New York. Living with her is father, H.Allen, age 75, b. Connecticut. [Her mother, Nancy, died in 1865.] Next door is her brother and his family: Allen, Lyman, 53, Teamster; Allen, Elsie,30, wife, keeping house, b. New York; Allen, Letitia, 6, b. Wisconsin. The 1880 US Census for WI, Jefferson CO, Palmyra shows Porter, Emeline D., 63, widowed, b. NY, mother & father both b. Connecticut (Copy in file)

ALPK entry Jour. Vol. 2, October 1882, when Antoinette was visiting family in Palmyra, WI :Wed 18 ....Vie & I took dinner with stepmother Emeline" places her there & alive at that date

Finally, the 1900 US Census, WI, Jefferson CO, Palmyra, repeats & expands upon the above data, to wit: Porter, Emeline D., b. Dec 1815, NY, age 84, no. of yrs married 47; Mother of 0 children; Mother & Father b. CT; owns home, no mortgage. The census index card was marked "Living alone".(Copy in file)

Newspaper clipping Batavia 19 Nov 1894 has the headline "Surprise in Corfu". The sub-heading is "Miss Bertha Porter Marries Robert Rowley-An Unannounced Affair" In other words, she eloped, after her parents had apparently tried hard to discourage her suitor. Her mother at that point was a patient in the sanatarium in Warsaw, &, so says the newpaper account, her father "took an early train this morning for Warsaw"

?Could her husband be brother of Rev. Richard Rowley, who married Cornelia S. Porter, daughter of Walworth Delevan Porter(#250)??

Railroad engineer; Wealthy. Lived in Rochester, N.Y. on Alexander St.

DPA thinks (& RKF agrees)he is really the man who in later life signed himself as Wm. S. . All evidence points to this fact:

1. George Porter Jr. in his vanity bio names five children who grew to maturity: Henry P., Delia M., George A., Warren S. & Sobeskie T.. ALPK said Sobeskie was a railroad engineer well off & living in Rochester. Sobeskie appears in the George Sr. & Sarah family in Rochester in the 1850 census age 17.

2. There is no Sobeskie Porter in the 1860 New York census or in any Rochester city directories

3. The 1851-52 Rochester directory shows William s. living with George Sr. & Jr.. The 1855-56 one shows him with Warren S., both at the St. Paul St. address

4. The obituary of 6 July 1892 for Henry P. Porter (see file) names two surviving brothers, George A. of Corfu & W.S. of Rochester

5. In the 1900 Rochester census living with daughter Jessica & Avery B. Davis, Wm. S. Porter, father-in-law, b. May 1832 (ALPK's year for Sobeskie), a locomotive engineer (ALPK's profession for Sobeskie)

6. William S. is buried in the family plot with George & Sarah & there is still no Sobeskie!!

Died of cerebral apoplexy. Buried east side of family plot.

WIFE - Cytherea-1088

Source:DPA/Roch. Gen.Soc.?Cem. records: She is buried in East side of plot
Died of heart problem. Resided Alexander St.

HUSBAND Robert Alexander CAMERON M.D.-531 Yr of Birth 1828
WIFE Jane Elizabeth PORTER-239 Yr of Birth 1828

HUSBAND - Robert Alexander CAMERON M.D.-531

Source:DPA Was owner & publisher of Valparaiso Republican;also joint editor. Jane, his wife, ran it for him while he served in the Civil War.

His biography in the NATIONAL CYCLOPEDIA states that "his ancestors came to America long prior to the revolution." His father. Robert A. Cameron, was born in Nova Scotia, but removed to new York. His grandfather, Allen Cameron, was born in New York City. In 1842, Robert moved to Indiana, & was graduated from the Indiana medical college in 1850, & then for a time was a student at Rush medical college. He practiced medicine, & owned & published the VALPARAISO REPUBLICAN until the war broke out. He was a member of the Indiana legislature when the war broke out; he was mustered in to the 9th Indiana Regiment as a Captain; was a Lt. Col. in the Ind. 19th, Colonel of the 34th Ind.,then a Brigadier Gen. from the middle of 1863 until the end of the war, when he became a major general by brevet. A parish was renamed Cameron for him to honor his distinguished service.

After the war (& Jane's death) he married Virginia Rhoades Moser on 11 Dec. 1864. They had a daughter, Virginia Moser Cameron, who was born & died on 21 Apr.1867 in Phelps, NY. Virginia Rhoades Moser died 21 May 1867 of consumption, in Phelps, NY. He lived two years in Phelps.

He was married a third time, on 22 Feb 1868, to Clara E. Flower, at Phelps, Ontario Co.,NY. They had 4 children: Kate,born 1871; Robert A.,born 1873; Agnes A., born 1875; and Dona Lo(?sp), born 1878. All born in Colorado, where Robert Cameron helped found 4 Colo. towns: Greeley, Manitou, Colorado Springs & Fort Collins. Was warden of Colo. penitentiary from 1885 to 1887; commisioner of emigration of Denver, Texas & Fort Worth Railroad starting 1888; projector of Texas Spring Palace at Fort Worth, Tx..Clara Flower died 21 Jan 1910. (see Civil War Pension file)

WIFE - Jane Elizabeth PORTER-239

Source: ALPK Genealogic chart & DPA(with extensive documentation)

Her husband was the owner & publisher of the Valparaiso Republican, also joint editor. On 25 April 1861 he sold out his paper to "go to war", but the payments were not kept up & it reverted to him while he was in the army.Jane published it for him beginning 10 April 1862. (See file for her particularly flowery obituary for her father written during this time).

According to a DAR source in a 1974 volume of Indiana DAR records, she died of a disease she contracted while nursing hospitalized Union soldiers (see DPA notes)

RKF visited Valparaiso in 1990 & was unable to gain entrance to the Old City Cemetery, now locked inside of tall metal fencing,abandoned & quite run down.

HUSBAND - Lemuel Castle STANLEY-346

Source:The Stanley families of America-Warren. p. 322; DPA/Bio of son Frederic from Portland Oregon History, vol. III.

His father was Whiting Day Stanley, his mother was Maria Castle. According to the Portland History "The Stanleys were of English lineage, the original progenitor coming to America with the early Pilgrims about 1650 and settling in New England, where his descendants are now numerous." His family were early pioneers in northern Wisconsin.

Lived in Baraboo after marriage until 1862, when he moved to Chippewa Falls.

"Well known as a banker & capitalist of Chippewa Falls. Pioneer of northern Wisconsin, one of most prominent financiers of that part of state. The Stanleys are of English lineage, the original American progenitor coming to America with the early Pilgrims about 1650 & settling in New England, where descendents are now numerous."

In a letter from Chippewa Falls written Jan 25, 1874, Samuel Porter (Lemuel's father-in-law) told ALPK that the Stanleys had property " of 4 or 5 hundred thousand dollars", & "live in good style".

WIFE - Cornelia Ann PORTER-249

Source: ALPK holo.gen.circa 1892 ; Family Group Sheet from DPA; Newspaper clippings

Probably named for her aunt Cornelia Ann Dann Porter (RIN# 65). Mistakenly referred to in 1850 Wis. Census as "Amelia"

Marriage: Newspaper clipping M.F. Milwaukee Sentinel 27 Feb 1855 p. 2 col 5 (see file). Married by Rev. Asa Wood.

Member of Christ Episcopal Church

Last known residence in Chippewa Falls 812 Bay St. (ALPK hol. gen. said she "was wealthy"--see husband's notes)

Obituary in Chippewa Falls newspaper (see clipping in file) said she died suddenly & unexpectedly, having "recently returned from Chicago where she met her son Fred, and wife, who with a party of friends had come east on a pleasure trip". Cause of death was Diabetes.

Burial site in Forest Hills Cemetery is Block 1, E 1/2 & W 1/2, Lot 21 . See file for photos & sketch of details of elaborate plot.

HUSBAND - Walworth Delavan PORTER-250

Source: ALPK Holo.gen. circa 1892; Civil War Pension files from DPA 27 May 1989; Biographic sketch in History of Sauk County, written in 1917

First child in this family born in Wisconsin Territory. His biographic sketch says he was "one of the first white children born in Walworth County"

Educated in elementary school in Walworth Co., high school at Baraboo, then attended "the old Baraboo Institute". First job was as a store clerk.

Served in army during Civil War, in Co. F 3rd Wis. Cavalry from 1862-1864.

Lived in Baraboo all his life after 1850 (except for war service). Had a small farm where he cultivated hops for a few years. Later became a realtor, owning numerous buildings & lots, including his home, "one of the best brick residences of the city, built by him in 1912 at No. 220 Eighth Street

HUSBAND William Vipen KING-49 Yr of Birth 1831
WIFE Antoinette Louise "Nette" PORTER-50 Yr of Birth 1835

HUSBAND - William Vipen KING-49

Source: Christening data from IGI file, Batch # P014831. ALPK holographic genealogy chart & narrative, original in possession of Carole King, copy in file. Also biographic sketches in several official books from Jackson history, including HISTORY OF JACKSON COUNTY, pub. 1910. Much information also drawn from ALPK journal of trip to & first years in Jackson, 1866-1872.

Probably named for his mother's brother, William Hilton. There were many Williams in the Hilton family. (See Hilton file).

HISTORY OF JACKSON COUNTY has many references to him & several photographs. In his biographical sketch, pg 339, among other information, it states " The King family set sail for America on April 1, 1835, and upon their arrival located near Utica, N.Y.. There until he was ten years old William lived with his parents, attending school & working for a short time in a factory."

"In 1841 he went to Walworth Co., Wis.(with his parents), and that was his home until his thirtieth year. During these years he was engaged in farm work and teaching school." He taught school in the winter months of 1855-56 and farmed in summer.(ALPK journal).

Marriages: First marriage to Antoinette is documented by her account in her journal, p. 23, "Fri 27th Mar 1868 Twelve years ago tonight, away in Wisconsin, in the old log-house, William & I were married & here we are tonight, away out in Minnesota." (See account ALPK journal, p. 23)

He & Antoinette were living in the same house with his parents, the John King family, according to the 1860 US Census for Walworth Co.,probably while farming the adjacent land he owned,(the E half of SW qtr. of Sec. 12, Twp 4 N, Range 16 E, containing 80 acres---see file for complete transcript).

In 1861, when he was 29,he moved his family (Antoinette,then 24, Willie,4; & Nellie,2) to Crawford Co. where he farmed at first. That same year,on the outbreak of the civil war, he took a position with the government as an enrolling officer. Family letters of that time as well as his official enlistment papers give the address as Eastman, a town no longer shown on the Wisconsin map.

Military Record: Civil War. National Archives, Rm. 203, #626. Folder contains 6 muster cards: 1 Co. Muster & Descriptive Roll; 1 Muster & Descriptive Roll of a Detachment of U.S. Vols. forwarded; 3 Co. Muster Rolls; 1 Co. Muster-Out Roll. Enlisted 3 Sept, 1864, at Prairie du Chien, Wis., for 1 year. Mustered in as a Private in the 43rd Wis.Vol.Infantry, Company C. Soon made 1st Sergeant Served 9 months. His papers state that he had brown hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion, was 5 feet 7 inches tall. Bounty paid $33.33 (Statement: Recruit entitled to Bounty). Where credited: 3rd Dist. Hickory Grove, Grant Co., Wis.. Ill & absent from muster: Nov/Dec sick at Nashville, Tenn. since Nov. 29; Jan/Feb sick in Gen'l.Hosp. Keokuk, Iowa; present Mar/Apr/May 1865. Mustered out Nashville, Tenn., June 24, 1865. Remarks: Due US $6.00 for gun & accoutrements. Returned G.O. 101. File also contains envelope with Hospital card (zerox copy in file); summons to a court-martialas a witness for the prosecution against John Kyser, Pvt. Co. C 43rd Wis. Infantry; volunteer enlistment form; & extensive records (copied by RKF/JGF in 1989--see file) detailing his 30 year later application for a pension; the depositions made on his behalf at that time by his wife, his sister Eliza, & her husband Mitchell Barney, ; a copy of his enlistment certificate; details of the injuries he sustained in the war & the history of his middle name, Vipen. There is also a transcript & photocopies of an extensive exchange of letters between him & Antoinette while he was hospitalized. He was hospitalized for a good part of his service, the first time in ilwaukee at Camp Washburn, shortly after enlisting, apparently with dysentery. A month later he rejoined his regiment at Louisville, Ky., & went from there to Johnsonville, Tenn.

The book WISCONSIN IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION; A HISTORY OF ALL REGIMENTS AND BATTERIES (see file) discusses the formation & duties of the 43rd Reg., which mustered in its 1st Co. 8 Aug & its last 8 Oct, 1864, then left Wisconsin & proceeded to Nashville, then by rail to Johnsonville, the terminus of the government railroad which had been built to convey supplies from Nashville to the Tennessee River. The function assigned to the 43rd was guard & garrison duty, details being sent daily to guard railroad trains to Nashville. The account describes a rebel attack beginning Nov. 4th, with massive fire from a 6 gun battery, coupled with a decision by the officers of the 43rd to destroy "property worth several millions of dollars" to keep it from falling into enemy hands. The account goes on "The burning of so many boats and buildings was a conflagration indescribably grand, which, added to the explosion of ammunition upon the boats and in the depot, and the roar of artillery from the combatants, between whom a battle was raging, produced a terrific scene. On the morning of the 5th, the fighting was renewed, but the rebels soon withdrew. During the engagement, the Forty-third lay in the trenches, protected by earth-works from the enemy's shot, being unable to aid in the battle because it was wholly an artillery fight. They lost one man killed, and one wounded." Against that background, it is interesting to read this passage from William's deposition, " Chalmers, Bufford & Forrest attacked us and we were under fire more or less for five days and during that time I was rendered unconscious by a shell bursting in front of me...". {The shell shock apparently caused him a considerable degree of deafness, which was one of the bases for his request 30 years later for a pension. See file for entire deposition }

Later that same month he was stricken with malaria & quite likely scurvy & spent most of his remaining time in service in military hospitals,first in Jeffersonville, Ind. He was transferred from there to the Seventh St. Hospital in Keokuk, Iowa. (Again, his letters to his wife are filled with details of his move & stay there). He seems to had had dyspepsia, & quite likely suffered from Scurvy. His detailed description of the daily diet provided by the hospital (see letters) does not even match the following criteria, excerpted from page 52 of SCURVY and CHRONIC DIARRHEA in CIVIL WAR TROOPS: WERE THEY BOTH NUTRITIONAL DEFICIENCY SYNDROMES?, pub. 1992 by the Journal of the History of Medicine & Allied Sciences, Inc. [See file]: " The basic army ration was changed by act of Congress on 3 August 1861; the regulations in force during the war stipulated the following diet for the Federal forces: A ration is the established daily allowance of food for one person. For the United States Army it is composed as follows: Twelve ounces of pork or bacon, or one pound and four ounces of salt or fresh beef; one pound and six ounces of soft bread or flour, or one pound of hard bread, or one pound and four ounces of corn meal; and to every one hundred rations, fifteen pounds of beans or peas, and ten pounds of rice or hominy; ten pounds of green coffee or eight pounds of roasted (or roasted and ground) coffee, or one pound eight ounces of tea; fifteen pounds of sugar; four quarts of vinegar; one pound and four ounces of adamantine or star candles; four pounds of soap; three pounds and twelve ounces of salt; four ounces of pepper; thirty pounds of potatoes, when practicable, and one quart of molasses........."

Although often ill, he occupied himself while hospitalized with taking classes at the adjacent college in accounting & double entry bookkeeping, acquiring skills he no doubt used later in life as Jackson's County Auditor. He also read law & even frequently attended post mortems held in the nearby dissecting room of the medical school in which the hospital was located. In February 1865, at his own request and in spite of Antoinette's protestations (see letters), he returned to duty with his regiment and although frequently ill with malaria & other afflictions, remained on active duty until he was discharged at Nashville, Tenn., in July 1865. In letters he wrote to Antoinette he first raised the subject with her of moving to Minnesota.

He returned to Adams, Wisconsin, to his parents' home, where Antoinette & the children had been living nearby with her father Selah Porter while he was away. He moved his family again, to Austin, Minn., in the fall of 1865, where he apparently worked for & they lived with a (sister) Mrs. Coot.(See file). In May of 1866 he located a homestead in Jackson Co. the SW 1/4 of Sec 28 in what was later organized as Wisconsin Twp. (so named in honor of the group, mostly Kings, who first settled there). The family actually arrived to stay on Oct. 12, 1866. They lived in the log cabin they built there until November 1872, when they moved into a home Wm. & Willie built in Jackson. (ALPK journal).

In addition to maintaining his farm and increasing responsibilities as a legal counsel for the town of Jackson, he taught school in the newly formed Dist. 9, Wisconsin Twp., when it was first formed in January of 1868. (ALPK journal that date)

He was elected to the office of Jackson County Auditor in the fall of 1872 & moved into town to assume the duties of the office. At that time they moved into a new home which William & Willie had built. (See ALPK journal). With the exception of two years he spent farming 80 acres of land he owned in Hunter Township (Sect. 24) in partnership with his son Willie.(Did he lose the election that term? Research), he always lived in the town of Jackson from 1872 until his death. He held county office 30 of the 46 years he lived in Jackson Co.; he was Judge of Probate 5 yrs, starting in 1867; appointed County Supt of Schools in 1867,& held that post 2 years; elected County Attorney in 1870, served one term, 2 years; he was County Auditor for 21 years, by far the longest tenure in that office of any person to this date.(He held that office from 1873-1877 & from 1879-1896).

He was appointed Master of the newly formed Jackson Grange in November 1872.He was a charter member of the Masonic order & a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. ALPK's journal has frequent references to the organizational meetings which led to the formation of these & other county institutions.

HUSBAND William Vipen KING-49 Yr of Birth 1831
WIFE Antoinette Louise "Nette" PORTER-50 Yr of Birth 1835

There has been some controversy about his middle name. The Civil War pension documents in the file, including an anecdotal account in the deposition given by his sister, Eliza King Barney, attest to the fact that he was given this name at birth, hated it so much that he stopped using it . When he enlisted in the army he signed many legal documents as just William King. After the war, when newly arrived in Jackson he was confused with another person with the same name and lost some freight as a result, he decided to renew use of his middle name. Thirty years after the war, when he applied for a pension, he had to prove to the U.S.Gov't. that he was the William King who had served. What may be an interesting clue to the name is that John Viper, an infant son of Thomas King (William's grandfather) was buried at the Royton Parish Church 16 April 1790, no mother listed, address given as Middleton. The register (see zerox copy) is clearly printed & there is no doubt the name recorded for the child is Viper, not Vipen. But the minister could have been wrong about the name or there are many other possibilities for error that could make this worth researching.

Second marriage listed Jackson Co. Register Book D, page 204: Wm. V. King to Leonora B. Chittenden at Fairmont by Wm. C. McCraken, Rector St. Martin's Church (Prot. Ep.) Witnesses Frank A. Day & Mrs. Wm. Hay. There were no children of this marriage (See file for Probate record her will)

Death/Burial: Jackson Co. Death Reg. Book E, p. 104,#84. Cause "Old age". According to his obituary, (Jackson Republic)he died peacefully at home at 8 AM, after a month of unspecified illness. He & Leonora, his second wife, had recently moved into a new home built for them, which has been modernized and is still standing in Jackson(photo in file). At the time it was built it would have been on the far outskirts of Jackson, and is referred to in some accounts as his "country estate". A newspaper account of that time refers to him as living in his new home "...surrounded by his family, friends, his flocks and his herds."

His funeral was held at the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Keeler presiding, and conducted under the Masonic order. Mentioned in the list of out-of-town relatives attending are the following: Mrs. Ellen M. Baird of Denver, Colo. {sister Nell, RIN# 57, married first to Lebbeus Porter, then to Mr. Baird}; R.H. King {brother, RIN# 58} Clay Center, Kans.; E.W. Davies [son-in-law, RIN# 288, widower of his daughter Ellen, RIN# 51}, and Mrs. C.M. Stearns [Granddaughter Kittie Alta Davies, RIN# 290}, both of Pipestone, Minn.; Mrs. E.A. Ekern {Granddaughter Mary Genevra King, RIN# 200}, of Airlie; Mrs. W.F. St. Clair {Niece Nellie Barney, RIN# 279, daughter of his deceased sister, Eliza King, RIN# 279} of Owatonna; and Mrs. F.B. Ellis [Niece Maude Barney, RIN# 280, as above} of Rock Valley, Minn.

His gravestone is inscribed "GAR Veteran 1861-1866"

Doc: Birth doc. her holographic genealogy of her family. (See note below, also file) NY Pub. Lib. MF 315 M for birth address conf.; Censuses; letters

HUSBAND William Vipen KING-49 Yr of Birth 1831
WIFE Antoinette Louise "Nette" PORTER-50 Yr of Birth 1835

Born at 206 Wooster St. in NYC. (Doc. from her genealogy, specific house number from NYC Directory for 1835-36.) Wooster St. formed one border of what later became Washington Square. Shown clearly on an 1811 map (See file) just off Canal St., 3 blocks off Broadway, between Prince & Grand Streets.

Often referred to in letters from husband and others as "Nette" or "Nett", and signed her letters to them that way. Always signed official documents with her full name.

She was only three years old when her family moved west, yet she was the connecting link between her mother's family in the east & those in the west, & she is the premier source for King & Porter family information. One of her major contributions to research in her family was the holographic genealogic chart & narrative she researched and compiled, some time between Jan. 1, 1892 (the last recorded date) & her own death in March, 1896). (Original document is in possession of Carol King, RKF has copy). In addition to the thorough and generally accurate genealogy detailed above, she kept a journal from 1866 to 1874 which details the pioneering move of the Kings and Porters to Jackson & the development of that settlement. She also saved family letters dating from 1829 until shortly before her death, which provide invaluable source material on the King, Porter & Dan families. [Carol King has the original letters, RKF has copies]. Antoinette was obviously very aware of the importance of her notes and accounts of life and she records events with a historian's eye. A couple of examples will illustrate this quality:

One of her letters to her husband, written April 17, 1865, gives many details of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, starting with ".....I must write to night to inform you of the sad intelligence we received Saturday evening although you may hear of it ere this reaches you. Our President is dead (under lined) shot through the head by a miserable villian and Sec Seward was stabbed three or four times & his son had his skull broken...........Lincoln was shot in the theatre. They may have caught the fellow his name is Booth he is son of the tragedian Booth of Chicago........" (See file).

An obviously assertive wife, she constantly cajoled William to write more often, and to tell her what he wants to name their new baby. She teased him at one point, saying "....By the way, ain't you afraid I will turn democrat--you know you used to say I was a democrat". [This from a woman 55 years before women's suffrage!]

She began writing her journal in May 1866, as she & William made preparations to move their family to their new home in Jackson. She left Austin, Minn. on May 22, the only woman in a party which included her husband; her two brothers, Lib & Irve Porter; William's two brothers George & Robert King, & their long-time friend from Wisconsin, Charles Heath, as they "started for the West in search of a homestead". On June 1st she writes "Located a homestead in Jackson Jackson Co Minn. Now hurrah [underlined] for the breaking plow & broad-axe". They returned to Austin, arriving there July 14th "tired dirty sleepy....have had a pretty rough time for the past six weeks. Living on sour bread [underlined]."

HUSBAND William Vipen KING-49 Yr of Birth 1831
WIFE Antoinette Louise "Nette" PORTER-50 Yr of Birth 1835

The actual migration by conestoga wagon began Thursday October 4th, took 9 days, & ended Friday, Oct.12th, when she wrote "Arrived at our new roofless home about 10 PM, dirty tired & hungry & wind blowing a hurricane". An article from the Jackson Co. Pilot (9 Feb 1930-see file) describes the living conditions she & her family endured, sharing living quarters with the Barneys under twelve boards that were "all that could be procured at the mill" until William & the others could build log cabins. Any Minnesota native can relate to the kind of weather that means they endured in late October for at least two weeks until they were under shelter.

She was an active civic leader all her life. (See numerous references in file). She founded or helped found many of Jackson's civic and secular organizations, and her journal is replete with descriptions of many of those beginnings. Two of the most interest are the note on Sunday July 7, 1867"......Organized Sabbath School last Sunday at our house. Had six scholars. Had ten today"; also, on January 15, 1868, she notes " .....school meeting at C.H. Heaths, the first school meeting in Dist. No. 9".

She was also a loving mother & grandmother to her large family. When her son Willie's first wife died, she provided a home & cared for her little granddaughter Mary King (RIN# 200), then seven months old, until she (ALPK) died when Mary was 10. According to a newspaper tribute to her at the time of her death (see file),Antoinette's last statement, as she died, was " Be good to each other and above all take care of little Mary".

Buried with her and William in their family plot (photos in file) are her granddaughter Bessie Viola King, infant daughter of Willie P. King and his first wife Mary Trumbull; nephew George Irving Porter, age 1 &1/2, son of her brother Lebbeus & Ellen Porter (his birth & death are thoroughly recorded in ALPK journal); niece Mabel King, born to Robert H. & Minnie King, who lived 1 year 5 months; and daughter-in-law Mary B. Trumbull King, first wife of Willie Porter King. Directly beside their plot is that of Eliza & Mitch Barney, her siter & brother-in-law & dear companions throughout their lives, constantly mentioned in her journal. Immediately behind this plot are the graves of her son John & his family. Her son Willie & numerous members of his family are buried in the same cemetery, as is her grandson Reginald George King in a nearby plot. Carved on the tombstone of Antoinette & William are the words "Here is sweet rest". One certainly hopes that is so, for she richly deserves it.

CHILD 1 - Willie Porter KING-20

Doc : ALPK (his mother) Holographic Genealogy written about 1892 [Copy in file] Walworth Co. birth records did not start until 1873. Census records show both parents living in Adams before he was born there. Listed in Wisconsin 1870 census, 1 June 1870, household #4, as 13 years old, at school, born Wis.

His given name was Willie, not William. In later years, he often signed himself as Will, but he was always very pleased that his name was actually Willie. He was still in school at age 16 [ALPK journal], not certain he graduated high school.

He moved with his family as a boy of nine to homestead in Jackson Co. in 1866.

Many details of his early life in his mother's journal,also in his own retrospective journal [See file for complete journal. Copy also in Porter-King Family Papers Collection Minnesota Historical Society].

First Marriage: Jackson Co. Register Book A, page 279: "Willie Porter King of Jackson to Mary E. Trumbull by J. Kirkwood Alexander. Witnesses: Wm. V. King & R. Brown"

He assisted his father in the county auditor's office for several years.

In 1878 he moved to a farm in Hunter Twp., along with his parents, where he & Wm. formed a partnership in farming & stock raising. When his wife's health began to fail, they moved back into Jackson.

After her death, in 1888, he left his daughter Mary in the care of his mother Antoinette King in Jackson, and he moved to Jasper,helping to build that new frontier town. Some time in the spring of 1888, he studied photography & acacquired photographic equipment. That summer he erected a photography tent attached to the new office building of the Jasper Journal being edited by his brother Selah, and he opened a gallery there & took many of the first photographs of the town. [Pipestone Hist. Soc. records]. He may have also started a photograph gallery at that time in Windom. Sometime around 1890, according to Olaf Nielsen [see file for interview with RKF July 1992 & HILLS OUR TOWN 1890-1990] he built a studio in Hills on the main street. This building is still standing (See photos in file), but was moved one block (to 204 Central Ave., between 2nd & 3rd streets) when the hardware store on Main Street expanded & needed room for its new blacksmith. Old photographs purchased July 1992 from Robert Kolbe, an antique dealer in Sioux Falls, have the logo "W.P.King, Hills and Jasper, Minn." (An important, as yet unanswered research question is to deif that is where he met Marit Rovang)

Second Marriage: [Doc:Minnehaha Co. Courthouse, Sioux Falls, So.Dak. Rec.Bk. B, p.11]Application for marriage, facing page Certificate of Marriage. Both dated Jan 1, 1892. Witnesses: Allan Thorne & Ernest Johnson. Thorne was the Clerk of the Circuit Court who signed the marriage application; no information who Ernest Johnson was. Both Willie & Mary stated in the application that at time they lived in Jasper. [Transcript of application & certified copy of marriage license & certificate in file].

He had a studio in Jasper until 1896, the year his mother died. At that point, he & Mary Rovang King moved their family back to Jackson to provide a home for little 10 yer old Mary, the surviving child of his first marriage. He lived in Jackson the rest of his life, where he was well known as one of the earliest settlers and one of its best story tellers.

About 1898 he built a large frame home at the N end of Main St. in Jackson to house his studio & the Jackson Co. Pilot, at that point owned & edited by his brother John. The family lived on the second floor. George King was the first child born there. Willie & Mary still lived there all during RKF's childhood. It was torn down sometime in the 1960s.

At various times he was Jackson's Fire Chief [see SOUVENIR OF JACKSON in files

for photographs], City Assessor, & Justice of the Peace. But primarily he was a photographer, an artist who took many of the earliest pictures of the new towns of Jackson, Jasper & Hills, as well as others. His many surviving photographs show imagination and individuality rare for his time, especially those he took of children. His work is documented in a book now being assembled of the work of early photographers in the Sioux Falls, S.D. area. Many of his photographs exist, some in RKF's files, many held by other family members, some in historical societies in the towns mentioned, yet others on sale in at least one antique shop in Sioux Falls.

He loved literature, especially poetry and could recite volumes of it from memory. According to his youngest daughter Kittie, at night he would retire early to his bed and commit new poems to memory. He was a life-long Democrat, fascinated with politics and history. He was the author of many articles on the early history of Jackson Co., many of which were published in the Pilot.

His vision of life, articulated in his diary, which he kept off & on for 27 years (copy in file) encompassed much information about late 19th & early 20th century Minnesota life, such as swimming in a swimming hole & going to school in Austin in 1866; his first sight of Jackson, then just "a laid out plat for the village....not a building or a tree, just fresh burnt off prairie and the only thing to show was the stakes that marked the blocks & lots"; the first, false Armistice of WWI, & finally the real end of WWI. His last entry, on July 1, 1944, provides a fitting epitaph for his vision. He wrote " As I pick up this scrapbook and look it over I get some idea of how time is on the wing. Almost 26 years ago we were waiting for the end of World War #1 and now just as eagerly and more so than then we are waiting for the curtain to be rung down on World War #2 with the hope that it will be the last of wars. In the first war I had two sons one who was electrocuted shortly after getting back. The other died a few years..[unintelligible]...from the effects of gas he got in the war. Now in this war I have three grandsons and the fourth just enlisting and I at the ripeage of 87 the 9th of this month am marking time waiting for the return of my grandsons and nephews. God grant that they may return safely." His death came 39 days later, without knowing that all of them would safely return.

Death: Jackson Co. Death Reg. Book F, p. 99, # C, 87 years 29 days. Cause of death " Diabetes mellitis/ Sunstroke" He was on his knees working in his garden when he was stricken, and died a day later. He had never in his life been a patient in a hospital before that day.

An artist, a raconteur whose stories extended back to the very beginnings of Jackson, a dreamer, a gentle and genial man, stone-deaf from about the age of 50, he was much beloved by his family and fellow citizens.

Other marriages:
1 Jan 1882 Mary Elizabeth "Eliza" TRUMBULL-198

CHILD 2 - Ellen Greenwood (Nellie) KING-51

B/Chr: Birth predates official Walworth Co. records (they start in 1873). Doc. from ALPK genealogy. A biography of her husband in THE ROSE HISTORY BOOK, PIPESTONE COUNTY BIOGRAPHIES, p. 677, states she "...was born in Walworth County, Wisconsin, on Christmas Day, 1858".

Born near or at her King grandparents' home, when her father was farming near them. At age two, moved with her family to Crawford Co., Wis. in 1861,. Her mother brought Nellie & Willie back to the King grandparents' home to stay during the time her father was serving in the army, from 1864 to 1865. After he was discharged, in 1865, the family to Austin, Mower Co., Minn., where her father worked for a farmer until he and her mother finally moved their family to Wisconsin Township, Jackson Co., Minn., where they homesteaded.

This is Antoinette's beloved little Nellie, who is the subject of a good deal of attention in ALPK's journal. She was nine years old when her family trekked by canestoga wagon across the prairie to settle in Minnesota, a journey much detailed in her mother's journal.

An item in her brother John's obituary in the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT, 12 Nov 1964 states " For as few years the King family resided in Hunter Twp. on whAt is now the Arnie Thompson farm, six miles west on TH 16. ....A sister, Nellie.... taught in the schoolhouse a short distance west of the home place. Her transportation to school often was in a cart drawn by oxen......"

Family letters (RKF has copies, originals in possession of Carole King) include include one from her to her brother Selah, written after she was married.

Named Ellen, called Nell or Nellie; the name Ellen appears in every generation of the King/ Greenwood families for at least 4 generations, and she is probably named Ellen Greenwood for her great-grandmother Nelly Greenwood Hilton (RIN# 182).

Marriage: JACKSON COUNTY MARRIAGE RECORD, Book A, p. 253. "Edward W. Davies of Pipestone Co., to Nellie G. King of Jackson Co., 5 Jan 1877, by Rev. J. Kirkwood Alexander. Witnesses: William V. King, M.V. Baldwin, E.L. Brownell, E.A. Barney"

After their wedding, she moved with her husband to Pipestone and remained there thirty-two years, the rest of her life. Her obituary describes her as " one of Pipestone's most prominent women. Four of her six children preceded her in death, at least two of them of tuberculosis. She also died tragically early of tuberculosis, after having been repeatedly hospitalized in a sanatorium near Minneapolis for a long time. She died in the sanatorium, and her body was returned to Pipestone for burial. (Her husband was a trustee of the Southwestern Minnesota Sanitorium Commission for many years after her death).

Burial: Funeral services were held at her home, conducted by Rev. B.L. Main. There was a burial rite of the Order of Eastern Star at the gravesite. Among many others, numerous relatives attended (according to her obituary in the PIPESTONE COUNTY STAR, 9-30-1913, Pg 1, col 2 Para 1). Among them were her father & his second wife; her brothers John & Selah & their wives, and her daughter Kitty & her husband, Clarence Stearns.

The family plot (Block A, Lot 174, sp 1,2,3,4) is dominated by a large obelisk in the center with the name Davies, and apparently several of her children are buried there, but, strangely enough, there is only one fairly small tombstone marked with her name, and no sign of her husband. (He married a second time, had at least one child by that marriage, and may be buried with that wife in another plot in the same cemetery). Standing there, in what seems a very incomplete final resting place, one feels the sadness of all the untimely deaths in this family.

CHILD 3 - Selah Samuel KING-52

Doc: Birth predates official civil records in Walworth Co. Doc. from daughters Carol & Dorothy King; ALPK genealogy, also PIPESTONE COUNTY BIOGRAPHIES, THE ROSE HISTORY BOOK, p. 757.

Born while his father was serving in the army during the Civil War (a hospital patient in Johnsonsville, Tennessee at the time.) Letters between his parents attest to Selah's birth. Antoinette writes, on October 21 (the baby was 7 days old) " ...I wish you could see our baby boy he is a fine little fellow has a nice head with quite a lot of black hair. His eyes are dark blue. I think they will be black".. William replies, on Oct. 26, "....I received a letter from Lucy (his sister) informing me of your confinement and the information that I am the father of another boy. I was so glad to hear it that I could hardly refrain from shedding tears. I would give almost anything to see the little fellow--give him a good kiss for me and don't forget Willie and Nellie...". With his parents' separation, there was much difficulty deciding on a name for him. Antoinette wrote, on Oct. 31st, "....Everyone wants to know what I am going to call him so if you have any name selected send word. Willie says his name is Albert Henry & Nellie says he must be called Cousin Acors. Father thinks he ought to have one grandchild named after the celebrated President Lincoln......" Months later, after William had neglected to address the question of the baby's name in his several letters to her, Antoinette was still writing, on Feb. 10, 1865, "..tell me what you want to name him and whether you like the name of Melvin Selah". Finally, at some point, he was named Selah for his mother's father, his grandfather Selah Smith Porter (RIN #64).(Original letters in possession of Carole King; RKF has copies in file)

Named Samuel for his uncle Samuel Porter, who wrote several letters to ALPK calling his "little namesake" Samuel Selah, & expressing his pleasure in the name. (See family letter file)

The family moved to Austin, Mower Co., in the fall of 1865, after William was discharged from the Army, and William worked for a farmer there until the next summer, when the family made its way to Jackson County and established a homestead in Wisconsin township. Selah was 2 years old at the time. In 1873 the family moved into the village of Jackson after William was elected county auditor. Selah grew up and was educated in Jackson.

In the spring of 1885 he moved to Pipestone & began his career as a printer, working in the office of the REPUBLICAN. In 1888 he was in the new town of Jasper, launching the JASPER JOURNAL in a little hurriedly built building. The first issue was dated July 25, 1888, and it continued successfully for a long time under Selah's editorial management. The paper was a five column quarto. In the spring of 1914, he "disposed" of the JOURNAL.

He was appointed Postmaster of Jasper in the summer of 1888 & served 4 years.

He was again appointed in 1897 & held the office for the rest of the 22 years he lived there. After closing the JOURNAL, he moved his family to Jackson, where he was Assistant Postmaster for a year.

In 1915 he moved to Flandreau & purchased the MOODY COUNTY ENTERPRISE, which he published for the next five years.

He was a member of the Blue Lodge & Chapter of the Masonic fraternity & of the Eastern Star; a Worthy Patron at Jasper & also a member of the Woodman Lodge.

Death/Burial: Services in the Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. K.J. Cardy There was a Masonic service at the grave. RKF & JGF visited his grave in the summer of 1990. (Photos in file)

CHILD 4 - John Lebbeus KING-53

Birth: Birth recorded in journal kept by his mother, Antoinette Porter King. Passage reads " Thurs Aug 11th Had company again. Wm went after them before daylight this morning, E {probably sister-in-law Eliza Barney}, E. Heath, and Mrs. Thomas. Also a little stranger arrived about 9 & 1/4 o'clock this morning. Guess we will call him John Lebbeus King. Rather cool & raining a little. Plenty of flies".

Named for his paternal grandfather John King (RIN#54); middle name from his maternal great-grandfather Lebbeus Porter (RIN# 71), & possibly also for his Uncle Lebbeus Effingham Porter (RIN# 68), his mother's brother, whose tragic tragic death occurred just 3 months before his birth, and about which she wrote so extensively in her journal.

First King child born in Jackson Co. Born in a log cabin on what in 1964 was the Earl Jackson farm, four miles east of Jackson in Wisconsin Twp. Educated in Jackson. Moved to Jasper, lived with and apprenticed as a newpaperman with his brother Selah, learning the printer's trade. He went to Clifton, Kansas, in 1893, where for two years he edited a Populist newspaper. Made his home at that time with relatives in Clay Center {Robert King &/or his daughter??}. He returned to Jackson & was for a short time deputy to his father, Jackson County Auditor. He bought and began publishing the Jackson County Pilot in November 1896, in partnership with J.C. McCroden. They published under the firm name of King & McCroden until 1900, when he bought out his partner's interest. According to his obituary," It was the county's only Democratic newspaper, and he made the publication an influential voice in affairs of the county". In 1923 he formed a partnership with S.J. Vasen & H.B. Johnson, employees for 10 years. "The trio with Mr. King as editor operated the newspaper successfully for 30 years, selling the plant to Lyle & Vila George in 1953." John King was editor of the Pilot for over 50 years!

He was an "old line Democrat", starting at the turn of the century when he really took an active interest in county, state, and national politics. He was present at the convention which nominated Woodrow Wilson for President and worked hard for his election. In 1940 he was Second District Democratic presidential elector. The Pilot also helped elect two of his close friends, John A. Johnson & Winfield Scott Hammond, to the governorship of Minnesota. (Both men died in office). It was through Hammond that he was appointed Jackson postmaster in 1914, an office he filled until 1923. He was also the Deputy Oil Inspector, an appointment he received from Gov. Johnson in 1903. For four years he was chairman of the Democratic county central committee & was also a member of his party's state central committee for two years. He held offices in the Second District Editorial Ass'n., the Jackson Kiwanis & the Jackson Building & Loan Ass'n.. He held membership in various branches of the Masonic fraternity. He was a strong booster of Jackson, & instrumental in numerous successful development efforts, such as the power plant. He fought hard to keep Jackson as the county seat [against a good deal of pressure from powers in Lakefield--see file]

He was well known as "Jackson County's oldest native son" (Jackson Co. Pilot obituary) much interviewed in his old age, including by MacKinley Kantor for his book SPIRIT LAKE. He wrote many articles about Jackson's early history, and loved to tell anecdotes of his early experiences. (See obituary & file)

He lived in his own home after his wife died well into his 80s, cared for, according to a newspaper clipping (See file) by a sister-in-law (Carrie King RIN# 217). He moved into the Jackson Sunset Home when it opened in 1956.(He was living there when RKP & family visited him in the early 1960s). He lived there until his death.

Death/Burial: Jackson Co. Reg. Index 1, Book G, p.450, item 6. Survivors listed as "his son-in-law & daughter, Mr. & Mrs. John W. (Louise) Snyder of Oakridge, Ore., and two grandsons, Stuart, now with the U.S. Air Force in Formosa and Bill, at home." Out-of-town relatives at the service were Robert St. Clair [his 1st cousin once removed, son of Nellie Barney & Will St. Clair] of Mason City, Ia.; Dr. L.E. Aurelius [newly widowed husband of his niece Bonnie Davies, whose death had occurred just 3 months prev.] of St. Paul; Kenneth, Paul, Carol & Dorothy King [nieces & nephews, children of his brother Selah] of Mpls.; Mrs. Fred Tolberd of Mankato & Mrs. Wendell Fleming of Garden City.

HUSBAND - Lebbeus Effingham "Lib" PORTER-68

Named for his grandfather Lebbeus Porter (RIN# 71). His middle name is the name of a town north of London, & may provide a clue to his Porter family forebears. Needs research.

He was a year old baby when his family moved west.

Family files provide extensive information about him, including a pre-nuptial letter to Nellie and several letters to William King. The two young couples moved together in 1864 from their homes in Walworth Co. to Eastman, Crawford CO., Wis., & farmed together there. That is the address from Williams letters from Lib were written. William was in army service in "Dixie" Lib was worried about the possibility of being drafted, & relieved to have been exempted by a doctor who "knew him of old". His health was obviously a continuous concern. He wrote many details to William about the disposition of Wm's stock & grain.

Antoinette's journal provides many details about him: the early life on the farms outside Jackson; his prolonged illness with and repeated attempts to recover from tuberculosis; the birth & death of his little son; and the sad final details of his death after several years of a losing battle. He seemed to have almost a mystical feeling he would get better if only he could get back to his Wisconsin home and at the end, leaving behind his wife & little daughters, one of them a weeks-old baby, he persuaded his brother Irve to make a desperate dash with him bedded down in a sleigh for a 100 mile trip in the midst of severe mid-winter snow & ice storms,crossing the semi-frozen Mississippi River by either rail or ferry or both. The trip took 6 days & he lived only a few hours after arriving at his family's home. His wife, Nell & his sister did not have any news of him or his death until April 8th ---21 days after he left them.

Once again, ALPK provides the last news of him when in her journal she tells about the letter she received from her sister Viola (RIN #70) giving the specific details of his funeral & burial. In her entry of Tues 12th April, she writes "Poor boy only live(d) nine hours after he got home. They got to Whitewater Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock & (he) died Sat morn about 1 o'clock. What a tedious journey. It was all Irve could do to get him home alive. Had to carry him in his arms all the way. He died the 26th of March. Was buried the next day Sunday in the graveyard where Father & Mother & Bro William lie near the yellow school house in Troy Wisconsin. Elder Delany from Whitewater preached his funeral sermon. Text in Psalms".

RKF & JGF visited the small & exquisitely tranquil Adams Cemetery in June 1990 We truly felt we had come full circle with Lib.

WIFE - Ellen M. (Nell) KING-57

Birth: Doc. ALPK Holographic genealogy. Follows many generations in King family of daughter named Ellen, called Nell. Most immediately, she was named for her Grandmother Ellen (Nelly) Greenwood Hilton. ALways called Nell or Nelly in ALPK's journal. first vols later always Ellen, poss to distinguish her from her namesake niece, Antoinette's daughter Nellie.

HUSBAND Lebbeus Effingham "Lib" PORTER-68 Yr of Birth 1837
WIFE Ellen M. (Nell) KING-57 Yr of Birth 1837

Marriage: Walworth Co. Index Vol. 2, p. 69. Married to Lebbeus Porter by William Jolliffe. Lebbeus was Antoinette Porter's brother, & Nell's brother William Vipen King was Antoinette's husband, so they were double sister & they were double brothers-in-law. [Historical note: According to the LAGRANGE PIONEER, p. 375, " Wm. Jolliffe was the first resident minister of the church at Little Prairie....coming there in the early 60's, & he was still there & conducted the memorial service for Pres. Lincoln in April 1865."] (See file for details of funeral.

Her brothers William, Robert & Albert; her sister Eliza,married to M.S.Barney; & her husband's sister Antoinette, married to her brother Lib, all moved together with them to Jackson, MN,in 1866. They were very close friends & Nell & Lib are constantly mentioned in ALPK journal.

She was left alone on the

Lib (Zella 8 yrs old) left her to make his Leonard

Nell moved back to Wisconsin a few months after Lib's death in 1868. On Feb. 20, 1876, she was married a second time, to James Baird (Mar. Rec.Vol.3 p 267) They farmed in Walworth Co. for a number of years. An article in the WHITEWATER REGISTER May 3, 1888, says " Mr. & Mrs. H.E. Nourse (Lucy King), Mr. & Mrs. Robert King & Mr. & Mrs. L.W. Coombe (her daughter Leonora) Sundayed with Mr. & Mrs. James Baird near Troy Center".

James Baird was born 31 Oct 1820, the son of John & Sarah Baird, both born in Ireland. He farmed his whole life in Walworth Co. He died at Troy Aug. 13, 1889, age 69, of blood poisoning. (Elkhorn Court House, Walworth Co., Wis. Reg Deeds,Death Reg. Vol. 3 p 114 #110798)

After James Baird's death, in the summer of 1890, according to a letter by W.P. King in the 25th Anniversary Ed. of the Jackson Republic, she moved to Jasper, Minn., "to live with her youngest daughter, Mrs. L.W. Coombe". Her presence in Jasper is also noted in a family letter from her niece, Nellie King Davies, to her brother Selah King (See King letter file)

CHILD 3 - Leonora Ellen (Nora) PORTER-267

Carried name Leonora of Long Island Dann family; Ellen for Hilton/King family

Marriage: Walworth Co. Marriage Certificate #106253 Vol 7 p. 52 . Married in M.E. Church by the Rev. William Bennett. Witnesses were John Cameron & Minnie King

At one point she was in possession of ALPK's journal. The brown paper wrapping which covered it when RKF received it from Carol King (in 1989) had a postal return address from her in Denver, when she had mailed it to John Lebbeus King some time in the 30's. Unfortunately the wrapping was lost.

Death: Recorded in newpaper clipping from JACKSON CO. PILOT, 8 Jan 1942: "John L. King received the sad message Tuesday forenoon bearing the news that his cousin, Mrs. Leonora E. Coombe, had died suddenly when stricken with a heart attack at her home in Denver, Colorado. Mrs. Coombe was the daughter of an early Jackson County pioneer family, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Porter, who homesteaded in Wisconsin Township in 1866, where Mrs. Coombe was born in 1870, the old home now being owned by Virgil Jones. Mrs. Coombe was also a cousin of W.P. King and up to a few years ago had made annual visits to Jackson for the purpose of visiting relatives."

WIFE	Bertha Josephine PORTER-831	Yr of Birth 1869

HUSBAND - Robert R. ROWLEY-832

Source: Genessee Co. biograghy of George Anson Porter, Jr., states he is "of" Attica, N.Y. Not certain whether that means he was born there, married & or lived there as adult

His father was the Rev. C.D. Rowley, pastor of the Methodist Church in Corfu in 1893-4, apparently why Robert & Bertha met. He moved from Corfu to Crittendon.

WIFE - Bertha Josephine PORTER-831

Source: DPA/ Cemetery records

Newspaper clipping Batavia 19 Nov 1894 has the headline "Surprise in Corfu". The sub-heading is "Miss Bertha Porter Marries Robert Rowley-An Unannounced Affair" In other words, she eloped, after her parents had apparently tried hard to discourage her suitor. Her mother at that point was a patient in the sanatarium in Warsaw, &, so says the newpaper account, her father "took an early train this morning for Warsaw"

?Could her husband be brother of Rev. Richard Rowley, who married Cornelia S. Porter, daughter of Walworth Delevan Porter(#250)??

Probably named for her paternal aunt, Cornelia Ann Porter (RIN #249)

The large Williams-Porter burial plot is so elaborate & so relatively modern, she & her husband seem like good candidates to have had it done before one or both of their deaths.

HUSBAND Levi W. COOMBE-297 Yr of Birth
WIFE Leonora Ellen (Nora) PORTER-267 Yr of Birth 1870

HUSBAND - Levi W. COOMBE-297

(Source: History of Walworth Co., P.K. Gen note p 8) Son of Thomas Coombe & P.B. Hutchings. Father was born in 1814 in Cornwall, England, brought up on a farm there, married in 1839 & emigrated to the USA in 1849 with 3 children. (one of them possibly Levi, depending on birth order. The order listed is John, Elizbeth, Serena, Oliver, Rosepha, Eliza, Emma, Henry, Levi & Ella---which suggests he was one of the youngest & probably was born in Wisconsin). Thomas Coombe was a pioneer settler in Wisconsin, coming directly there upon arrival in the USA. He settled in Palmyra, pyrchased & farmed 80 acres there. He bought an additional 240 acres in Sect 8, Troy, in June, 1870. He farmed all his life & died there.

Marriage: Walworth Co. Marriage Certificate #106253 Vol 7 p. 52 . Married in M.E. Church by the Rev. William Bennett. Witnesses were John Cameron & Minnie King

At one point she was in possession of ALPK's journal. The brown paper wrapping which covered it when RKF received it from Carol King (in 1989) had a postal return address from her in Denver, when she had mailed it to John Lebbeus King some time in the 30's. Unfortunately the wrapping was lost.

Death: Recorded in newpaper clipping from JACKSON CO. PILOT, 8 Jan 1942: "John L. King received the sad message Tuesday forenoon bearing the news that his cousin, Mrs. Leonora E. Coombe, had died suddenly when stricken with a heart attack at her home in Denver, Colorado. Mrs. Coombe was the daughter of an early Jackson County pioneer family, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Porter, who homesteaded in Wisconsin Township in 1866, where Mrs. Coombe was born in 1870, the old home now being owned by Virgil Jones. Mrs. Coombe was also a cousin of W.P. King and up to a few years ago had made annual visits to Jackson for the purpose of visiting relatives."

DPA & RKF are Porter cousins several times removed--we both are descended from Lebbeus Porter/ Ruth Lyman, with 4 generations between us & them. We were introduced by Miss Joan Brooks, Librarian for the Suffolk Co. Historical Society, who knew we were both tracking the same ancestor.

Lives at 3712 Bent Branch Road, Falls Church, Va. 22041

Works for Fed Govt in Washington DC. Knew Jarvis in early 50s when both were employees of same agency.
